School policies outreach

The school district 509-J is engaging Warm Springs families in developing Impact Aid Indian Policies and Procedures for the coming fiscal year.

The district this winter conducted a survey about the draft Policies and Procedures. Results and other information will be shared at a public meeting starting at 6 p.m. this Thursday, January 4 at the Warm Springs Academy.

The goal is to develop a process allowing the district to more fully share information about Native student outcomes with the district, and respond to the community input.

The information includes Native student academic achievement, involvement in school clubs, sports, etc.

The idea is more fully to engage Warm Springs families in district decisions and performance—"To see what is working, and what's not," said Ken Parshall, superintendent and Academy principal.

Here is a January-February schedule of events for this project:

Thursday, January 4: Public meeting and work session.

- Seek input on Indian Policies and Procedures.

- Review survey and feedback on Policies and Procedures.

January 16: Indian Education Advisory Committee meets to finalize the Indian Policies Procedures.

January 22: Indian Policies and Procedures to the school district board for approval.

January 23: Submission by the district of the Impact Aid application.

February 12: The district disseminates the following information:

- Impact Aid fiscal year 2019 information.

- Evaluation of all educational programs; and plans for education programs the district intends to initiate or eliminate.

February 27: Public meeting to review:

- Impact Aid fiscal year 2019 information.

- Evaluation of all educational programs.

- Plans for education programs the District intends to initiate or eliminate.

Anybody wishing to attend a meeting, who has a disability requiring assistance, please advise Tessa Bailey at 541-475-6192 about specific arrangements.

Council beginning 2018 with enterprise news

Tribal Council is starting the New Year with tribal enterprise updates—including the latest on the cannabis project, and Kah-Nee-Ta Resort.

The January Council enterprise updates will start with the Warm Springs Timber LLC, now starting its third year. Tribal Council established the Timber Co. in 2016, after closure of the mill.

Indian Head Casino, Power and Water Enterprises and Warm

Springs Composite Products will follow the timber presentation. Telecom, Credit and Ventures are next.

More specifically from Ventures, the Council will hear the latest on the cannabis project.

The Ventures board and management plan to meet on the subject later this week or early next week; and are scheduled to make their presentation at Tribal Council on the afternoon of January

A little over two years have passed since the membership, by a strong mandate, okayed the cannabis resolution. Funding for the start-up has been the issue for the past year.

Ventures has looked at various scenarios, including the initial idea of bringing in an experienced partner as part owner-operator. Tribal Council this month will hear the latest proposal.

After the cannabis report, Tribal Council is scheduled to hear the latest on Kah-Nee-Ta.

The resort board has been working on a solution for the resort, which in previous years has been costing the tribes.

Working with an outside investor-manager was the only real solution, the board determined. The latest on this project also goes to Council on January 16.

First ever Winter Prevention Camp

One of the memorable activities at the Winter Prevention Camp was the building of a natural fire, using only sticks and a bow strung with parachute chord. From Warm Springs, Silas Howtopat was able to get the fire going.

"You have to have a positive mind set and a good heart to accomplish that," said Scott Kalama, of Warm Springs Prevention, who with Rosanna Jackson was chaperon at the camp.

Silas was one of two youth at the camp who was able to start the natural fire. The other youth was with the Native American Rehabilitation Center (NARA) group from Portland.

NARA hosted of the camp—the first Winter Prevention Camp, held in late December at the Oregon 4-H Camp in Salem. The Warm Springs team and NARA were the only two teams to make it to the camp, as road conditions were bad for traveling from other tribes.

In all about 20 youth attended the three-day camp.

Each day would start with a walk. These were in addition to a nine-mile hike on one of the days. All of the youth made the entire nine miles, Scott said.

The youth—organized into smaller clans—stayed in cabins, and were responsible for keeping them clean. There were lessons in responsibility, the importance of being clean, exercise and health.

They also had a talent show and dance. The next NARA Prevention Camp is coming up in the springs.

Changes downtown in New Year

The Warm Springs Community Action Team has already raised some of the initial funding for the Commissary project. The Action Team raised $100,000 from the Oregon Community Foundation for the project itself, plus $20,000 to hire a fundraiser to help finish with the financing aspect of the project.

The goal eventually is to come up with $1.5 million. The Community Action Team, though, is planning to begin the project soon, using the available funds as the future fundraising continues. Moving the building, for instance, could happen during the first part of this year.

The first phase of the project is to move the historic Commissary building from its location near the police station to the spot by Highway 26 and Paiute Avenue.

The first phase also involves a complete renovation of the building, said Chris Watson, Community Action Team executive director.

In time, the ground floor will include four or five commercial businesses. A community survey identified some of the prospective new businesses: a coffee shop, possibly with services like a Kinko's; a barbershop-hair salon; a tribal art shop are examples.

The second floor of the building would include office space, and offices for the staff of the Commissary project, including a business coach and fiscal person.

At its new location the Commissary would have a basement that could be space for working on tribal art, including a kiln, for instance.

A second phase would be a commercial kitchen in a new building adjacent to the Commissary.

There could be a nearby open pavilion structure where other vendors could set up. A public restroom is another idea.

The goal is to draw some of the thousands of vehicles that pass by the site every day on Highway 26. This may involve improvement of the highway exit.

The Community Action

Team has worked with tribal Planning and Management as the project has progressed.

Services at the development area could be advertised along the highway, bringing more attention to the Warm Springs Commissary Project.

As of now, the timeline for the project calls for the opening in the spring of 2019, Mr. Watson said.

This would fulfill a goal identified by the tribes several years: The 2008 Downtown Improvement Plan envisioned just such a use of the historic Commissary.

Showing its support, the Tribal Council in December provided the Community Action Team with a 10-year lease of the structure.

Museum celebrating Twenty-Fifth Anniversary

It was March 13, 1993 when the tribes celebrated the opening of the Museum at Warm Springs. The day marked the fulfillment of a vision decades in the making:

“Way back in the 1960s, we could see that the old ways were disappearing,” Warm Springs Chief Delvis Heath said at the time.

“The old languages were disappearing, and pretty soon none of our young people would know where they came from or who they were. That’s when we decided to build a museum.”

Tribal Council passed resolution 4084—the Museum Project—in 1974.

The resolution included the first museum charter, and established the first board, at the time called the Middle Oregon Indian Historical Society.

The ensuing years involved the intensive fundraising needed for the ambitious museum project.

The board hired the first executive director in 1987, and in 1988 Tribal Council put a referendum before the membership:

The question was whether to appropriate $2.5 million for construction of the Museum at Warm Springs.

At the time, the funding was the most ever for a tribal museum. The Museum at Warm Springs was also the first tribal museum in the state of Oregon.

After hiring the first executive director, it took only a few short months to raise another $3.1 million from grant foundations, corporations and individuals.

Benefiting from these monies was the construction, Education program and an endowment, bringing the total cost of the museum project to $7,628,900.

Construction began in the spring of 1991 by SM Andersen Construction Company of Portland.

The building designer was Stastny & Burke Architecture of Portland. The exhibits were designed by the Formations Co.

From the day of its opening in 1993, the museum has been under the leadership of the board of directors, who created the mission statement, and a Board of Regents. The mission:

“The Museum At Warm Springs exists to preserve the culture, history and traditions of the three tribes that comprise the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs. The Museum was designed to provide a welcoming sight to the public as well as a safe conservatory for the traditional treasures of the tribes.”

The design

The architects invited tribal members to participate in the designing and integration of any tribal traditions. Elders of each tribe were invited to meetings to give their ideas.

The exterior is arranged to resemble a traditional encampment among the cottonwood. Construction materials—local stone, timber and brick—reflect the surroundings and traditions of the tribes. There is a stream outside, continuing as a floor design through the lobby. The columns are made of tall reservation trees.

The year ahead at the museum

from the National Museum of the American Indian.

June 21 – November 3: Exhibit, Memory of the Land, art from the museum’s collection, other museums and private collections.

August 18: The Huckleberry Harvest annual banquet and auction.

October: Middle Oregon Treaty of 1855 display.
October 25-27: Treaty symposium at Kah-Nee-Ta Resort.

Letters to the editor

Christmas play

Happy New Year, friends and relatives,

I am thanking all of the people who helped me have a beautiful Christmas play. Peace Came in a Cradle was on December 13 at the Community Center. And thank you to all the families who brought their children to perform for you.

I'd like to thank one person the most, for she helped with all of her heart and soul. The Lord has blessed her. Thank you Denni Thompson. Also thank you to the narrator and singers, restoration for our forest, the casino for donations, plus Power and Water Enterprises, and to Tribal Council.

All that was donated helped those who attended the play to receive a gift from Santa.

Love and Prayers,
Roma Cartney

Note from Prevention

With the start of the new year, Oregon is now enforcing a law that raises the required minimum age to legally buy or obtain tobacco products from 18 to 21.

Gov. Kate Brown signed SB 754, known as Tobacco 21, in August. Enforcement and fines began January 1. Oregon is the fifth state to increase the age to purchase tobacco, after California, Hawaii, Maine and New Jersey.

Under the new law, retailers can no longer sell tobacco products or inhalant delivery systems, such as a pipe or vaporizing device, to people younger than 21. Violations of the law are punishable by a fine of $50 for employees, $250 for store managers, and $500 for store owners. For managers and owners, the fines double by the third offense.

Help is available for anyone in Oregon ready to quit tobacco. Call Warm Springs Prevention for more information, 541-553-2305, or 541-615-0036.

Michael H. Martinez, Prevention specialist, Warm Springs Health And Promotion Prevention Initiative (HAPPI).

For the pets

The Bend Spay and Neuter Project will return in 2018 to the Warm Springs Reservation, offering the free service to pet owners.

Through last year the clinic has spayed or neutered 256 dogs on the reservation. Bend Spay and Neuter also vaccinated more than 350 local dogs for rabies.

The first clinic of 2018 will be on March 4, and will continue the first Sunday of the month through the year.

The important challenge facing the program: Finding a new location to provide the service in Warm Springs.

If you have a suggestion, please call 541-617-1010.

Free services include spay and neuter, vaccination for rabies and parvo, and adoption. The Warm Springs service of the Bend Spay and Neuter Program is made possible by an endowment from a woman who lived on the reservation years ago, when her husband worked as a doctor at the clinic. You can learn more at bendsnip.org

National Honor Society

Congratulations to Jazell Allen for making the National Honor Society, a straight A student.

We are proud of you, from grandpa Leroy, Jarrod, uncle Jace and all the family in Warm Springs.

Fit food tip

Having diabetes doesn't mean you can't ever eat your favorite foods.

The key is a combination of what, how much, and when to eat. Breakfast is your best chance to increase fiber in your diet and get in a serving of fruit and dairy.

Kickstart your morning metabolism the right way by making sure you have some breakfast at home each day. Oat meal is one of the best breakfasts you can eat if you have diabetes. It contains four grams of fiber per cup, which will help keep blood sugar levels steady.

And studies have shown that eating a cup of oat meal five or six times a week can lower the risk of developing type 2 diabetes by 39 percent. Have non fat milk or plain yogurt with your oat meal.

And choose an orange over orange juice. The actual fruit will make you feel more satisfied and full.

This message is brought to you by the Warm Springs Diabetes Program and 91.9 FM KWSO.

Time to take health survey

The tribal member health survey team has interviewed close to 200 members so far in the health information collection project. The survey team will continue the project through this month.

Participation by all members over 18 is encouraged, as the survey results will guide tribal health care priorities in coming years.

There is a $30 gift card incentive for anyone who participates. The survey takes about an hour to 70 minutes. Survey responders and answers remain strictly confidential.

This is a tribal project—approved by Tribal Council and the Health and Welfare Committee—in cooperation with the Northwest Portland Area Indian Health Board.

Warm Springs Community Health, and the Prevention program are coordinating the health interviews.

For more information, or to schedule a time to take the survey, please call 541-615-0036. Or stop by the Family Resource Center.

Emergency alerts

The Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs offers emergency text messages to communicate information to community members, and to tribal employees.

Weather related delays, closures and other impacts are relayed in a text message for anyone who signs up to receive the messages. Visit the link: 'CTWSOAlerts' listed in this Community Calendar on the KWSO website.

You'll need to provide your name, cell phone number, service provider and an email address. Most but not all providers will work for the emergency messages.

Energy help

This is the time of year when our monthly power bills become nearly unmanageable.

Good news is that Warm Springs Social Services can help with low-income energy assistance. You can get an application and details at the Social Service office located in the Family Resource Center. Or call 541-553-3415.

Looking forward to a great 2018, with Warm Springs artist Travis Bobb.

For the Health of It...

Start off the New Year by focusing on good health basics—Eating right doesn't have to be complicated.

Healthy eating includes a variety of fruits and vegetables, lean proteins, whole grains, and low-fat dairy.

If you are overweight, work toward losing 5-7 percent of your weight. This will significantly reduce your health risks.

Get in about 30 minutes of moderate activity every day to assist in weight maintenance and overall health. If you smoke – quit!

Make sleep a priority and shoot for 7-9 hours of shut eye every night.

Many medical conditions can be recognized in the early stages by getting preventive screenings and immunizations. Ask your doctor about what screenings are recommended for you.

Stress less and stay positive! These health tips are brought to you by the Warm Springs Diabetes Program and 91.9 FM KWSO!

Important health question on ballot

Oregon voters on January 23 will vote on Measure 101, the Healthcare Insurance Premiums Tax for Medicaid Referendum.

This ballot measure presents a health funding question of critical importance to the membership of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs.

As stated in the ballot summary: Passage of the measure would approve temporary assessments to fund health care for low-income individuals and families, and to stabilize health insurance premiums.

In other words, passage of the measure is important for adequate funding of the Oregon Health Plan. The tribes have a high percentage of members who are enrolled with the state health plan. An example of the potential consequences:

When a tribal member goes to the clinic and is referred out for specialty care outside the clinic, then the Oregon Health Plan—with adequate funding—can cover this cost, if the patient is enrolled with OHP.

Without adequate funding, the cost of the outside health care would go the tribes’ Managed Care program. Potentially, if Measure 101 does not pass, then the Managed Care program could see a large negative financial impact.

“The overall effect of Measure 101 on the community of Warm Springs is vital, as the passage would allow stabilization of the state’s health system, commonly known as OHP,” said Mike Collins, director of Warm Springs Managed Care.

Passage of the measure, Mr. Collins said, “Would allow our community members to continue to be eligible for assistance through OHP. With Measure 101 failing, it would be detrimental to the tribes’ Managed Care Program, as the assistance now covered by OHP would be transferred to the expense of the Managed Care Program.”

He added, “Over time this could jeopardize assistance, and potentially put us back into a Priority 1 status.” The Priority 1 situation of some years ago involved a strict limitation on the kinds of health care services available to members.

Spokane casino opening

The Spokane Tribe will open its long-awaited casino in Washington on January 8, 2018.

The Spokane Tribe Casino is located in Airway Heights. The facility, which is expected to grow in the coming years, will feature 450 slot machines, 12 table games, a restaurant and bar, a deli and a gaming floor bar, according to news reports.

“Many supporters of the Spokane Tribe Economic Project helped with our efforts to make the casino become a reality, and we are grateful to share this celebration with them,” said Chairwoman Carol Evans.

It took the tribe over 10 years to win final approval for the Spokane Tribe Economic Project. Approval from the Bureau of Indian Affairs, as well as the state governor, was needed because the 145-acre site had been acquired after the passage of the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act in 1988.

Spokane Tribe Casino on Facebook: ‘It’s time....’

The Spokanes are among a small number of tribes to have completed both steps of the two-part determination process of IGRA. One of the first was the Kalispel Tribe, whose leaders operate the Northern Quest Resort and Casino at a site in Airway Heights less than three miles away.

The Kalispels, along with Spokane County, are suing the federal government in hopes of derailing the new development but litigation does not appear to have advanced to a decision phase.

The Spokane Tribe has intervened as a defendant.

Indian Policies and Procedures - School District 509- J - FY2019 (draft)

Dear parents, family and community members,

I hope you and your family members had a great 2017. I’m very honored to serve the community as the new superintendent of the Jefferson County School District.

I’m writing to you from this new role about the process of communicating with families of Native American students and community members. In particular I am writing about participation of Native youth in district programs, and how we can improve outcomes for our students in the future.

I am asking for your help in three ways. First, please review the following Indian Policy and Procedures, so named by the U.S. Department of Education.

Second, please answer the three question survey, sent earlier by mail, about how often and in what manner it is best to communicate and receive information from you about our procedures, programs, involvement of students, and learning outcomes for students.

The completed survey can be returned to one of the following location: The Warm Springs Academy, the Warm Springs Library, Warm Springs Early Childhood Education Center, Madras High School or the District Office. The survey can also be completed online at: jcsd.k12.or.us/district/impact-aid.

Finally, in February, review the information that will be distributed about the participation of Native American students in district programs and results; providing feedback and suggestions for improvement.

Thank you in advance for your participation in this process. I look forward to working with you more closely in the years to come in order to ensure improved results for our students.

Sincerely,
Ken Parshall, superintendent,
Jefferson County School District.

Indian Policies and Procedures - School District 509- J - FY2019

It is the intent of the Jefferson County School District 509-J (“the District”) that all Indian children of school age have equal access to all programs, services and activities offered within the school district. To this end, the District will consult with local tribal officials and parents of Indian children in the planning and development of Indian Policies and Procedures (IPPs), general education programs, and activities.

These policies and procedures will be reviewed annually and revisions will be made within 90 days of the determination that requirements are not being adequately met.

Indian Policies and Procedures

The following Indian policies and procedures become effective upon school board approval.

1. The LEA will disseminate relevant applications, evaluations, program plans and information related to the LEA’s education program and activities with sufficient advance notice to allow tribes and parents of Indian children the opportunity to review and make recommendations. [34CFR222.94(a)(1)]

a. The District administrator/designee will, as soon as reasonably possible after such information becomes available, but not later than one week in advance of any meeting, post the following documents on the District website (jcsd.k12.or.us/district/impact-aid) for all Indian parents and tribal officials to review:

- i. Impact Aid application;
- ii. Evaluation of all educational programs; and
- iii. Plans for education programs the District intends to initiate or eliminate.

b. In addition, information regarding these materials will be included in the District’s monthly newsletter, if appropriate.

c. Parents of Indian children, tribal officials and the public will be given notice of any and all meetings related to equal participation or the content of the educational program. The location, date and time of any meeting described above shall be posted in the same manner as a legally posted Board meeting.

2. The District will provide an opportunity for the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs and parents of Indian children to provide their views on the District’s educational program and activities, including recommendations on the needs of their children and on how the District may help those children realize the benefits of the educational programs and activities.

As part of this requirement, the District will:

- (1) notify tribes and the parents of Indian children of the opportunity to submit comments and recommendations, considering the tribe’s preference for method of communication, and
- (2) modify the method of and time for soliciting Indian views, if necessary, to ensure the maximum participation of tribes and parents of Indian children.

[34CFR222 .94(a)(2)]

a. The Indian Education Advisory Committee of the District will meet four times annually for the purpose of addressing comments and concerns of parents of Indian children regarding the District’s educational programs and activities.

The meeting agendas are posted and all meetings are open to the public allowing for tribal officials as well as parents of Indian children the opportunity to submit comments and recommendations for consideration.

i. A school board representative is a non-voting member of the Indian Education Advisory Committee. This representation allows for the discussion of the needs of the students and ideas to be brought forward to both the Indian Education Advisory Committee as well as the School Board.

b. At each of the monthly school board meetings, a section of time is set aside for communications from the public. This is a time to offer comments and suggestions regarding programming for Indian students. In addition, a public engagement process where family members and tribal leaders are provided the opportunity to provide feedback is scheduled for February of each year. Based upon suggestions, preferred methods of communication as well as ways to maximize participation from tribal officials and parents of Indian children will be seriously considered.

c. The District and the Indian Education Advisory Committee representatives will schedule an annual meeting with the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs to discuss ongoing programing goals.

3. The District will annually assess the extent to which Indian children participate on an equal basis with non-Indian children in the District’s education program and activities. As part of this requirement the LEA will:

- (1) share relevant information related to Indian children’s participation in the LEA’s education program and activities with tribes and parents of Indian children; and
- (2) allow tribes and parents of Indian children the opportunity and time to review and comment on whether Indian children participate on an equal basis with non-Indian children. [34CFR222.94(a)(3)]

a. The District will take the following measures to annually assess the extent to which Indian children participate on an equal basis with non-Indian children in the District’s education program and activities.

- i. The Jefferson County School District 509J will monitor Indian student participation in all academic and co-curricular activities.

- ii. School district officials will review school data to assess the extent of Indian children’s participation in the District’s educational programs on an equal basis.

- iii. The Jefferson County School District 509J will share its assessment of district funding, Indian student participation, related academic achievements and other related data will be shared with the parents of Indian children and tribal officials by email, posting at tribal offices, and online at: jcsd.k12.or.us/district/impact-aid

This will be done one week in advance of the annual public engagement process meeting scheduled in February of each year.

- iv. Parents of Indian children, tribal officials and other interested parties may express their views on participation through direct communication with the school district, at any school board meeting or to Indian Education Advisory Committee meetings.
- v. Copies of annual reports will be provided to tribal officials.

4. District will modify the IPPs if necessary, based upon the results of any assessment or input described in this document. [34CRF222.94(a)(4)]

a. During the organization meeting of the Indian Education Advisory Committee, the Indian Policies and Procedures will be reviewed and revised if necessary. Once this has happened, the document will be forwarded to the Board as well as the tribal officials and parents of Indian children for review and consideration.

If necessary, the Indian Education Advisory Committee may suggest revisions at other times of the year as appropriate. Any updates will be sent to parents of Indian children and tribal officials within one week of adoption by the Board.

5. The District will respond at least annually in writing to comments and recommendations made by tribes or parents of Indian children, and disseminate the responses to the tribe and parents of Indian children prior to the submission of the IPPs by the LEA. [34CRF222 .94(a)(5)]

a. The District will at least annually respond in writing to comments and recommendations made by Indian Education Advisory Committee, tribal officials, or parents of Indian children, and disseminate the responses to all parties by email, posting at tribal offices and online <http://jcsd.k12.or.us/district/impact-aid>) prior to the submission of the IPPs by the District.

6. The Jefferson County School District 509J will provide a copy of the IPPs annually to the affected tribe or tribes. [34CR F222.94 (a)(6)]

a. The Jefferson County School District 509J will annually provide a copy of the current Indian Policies and Procedures to the Confederate Tribes of Warm Springs by mail, email, posting at tribal offices, and online at jcsd.k12.or.us/district/impact-aid by February of each year.

Attestation

The District attests that it has established Indian Policies and Procedures (IPPs) as required in section 7004 of the Impact Aid law for any children claimed who reside on eligible Indian lands.

The IPPs have been adequately disseminated to the tribes and parents of children residing on eligible Indian lands. A copy of the current policies and procedures was attached to the FY2019 Impact Aid application.

Resolutions of Tribal Council

Carbon sequestration

Whereas the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon has entered the carbon sequestration market through the California Cap and Trade Program based on the Tribe's Improved Forestry Management Project ("Project"); and,

Whereas the closure of Warm Springs Forest Products Industries by the Twenty-Sixth Tribal Council has created a need for new and additional sources of trust revenue; and,

Whereas Federal regulations at 25 CFR Section 115.002 define "trust assets" to include "natural resources" held in trust by the federal government for the Tribe, and further define "trust resources" as "any element or matter directly derived from Indian trust property" and define "trust funds" as "money derived from the...use of...trust resources..."; and,

Whereas Carbon sequestration involves the management of certain Warm Springs tribal forests through the Project to produce carbon offset credits for marketing in California's Cap and Trade Program; and,

Whereas the Tribal Council believes that Warm Springs carbon offset credits are a "trust resource" that is "directly derived from Indian trust property" and the revenue from the sale of Warm Springs carbon offset credits is "money derived from the use of trust resources", as defined in 25 CFR Section 115.002; and,

Whereas the Tribal Council further believes, pursuant to the 25 CFR Section 115.002 definitions of "trust resources" and "trust funds" that the revenue resulting from the sale of Warm Springs carbon offset credits in the California Cap and Trade Program must be treated by the U.S. Department of Interior as "trust funds" and therefore entitled to the legal treatment accorded such revenues under federal law; now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Twenty-Seventh Tribal Council of the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon, pursuant to Article V, Section 1 (a),(f),(l) and (u) of the Tribal Constitution and By-Laws, that it is the position of Tribal Council that revenue from the sale of carbon offset credits directly derived from management of Warm Springs tribal forests are entitled to treatment by the U.S. Department of Interior as "trust funds" as defined by 25 CFR Section 115; and,

Be it further resolved that the Twenty-Seventh Tribal Council urges the U.S. Department of Interior to expressly state the Department's acceptance of revenue from the sale of Warm Springs carbon offset credits as "trust funds" eligible for deposit in the Tribe's trust account. Resolution no. 12,405.

Commissary business project

Whereas the Tribal Council is the governing body of the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon; and,

Whereas the Tribal Council recognizes the need for Historic Preservation of buildings and sites of historic significance on the Reservation; and,

Whereas the Tribal Council manages the economic affairs of the CTWS and recognizes the need to strengthen the small business economy of the Reservation; and,

Whereas the Twenty-Seventh Tribal Council was informed that the previously approved Resolution No. 4650 approved by the Fourteenth Tribal Council of the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon, passed on 27th day of May, 1976, recommended that the Commissary Building, a two-story, 4,927 square foot, wood frame building located downtown dating from the late 19th century, along with nine additional sites on the Reservation, be recommended for Historic Preservation; and,

Whereas the Warm Springs Downtown Development Plan of 2005, commissioned by the (22nd) Tribal Council and prepared by the Mitchell Nelson Group, LLC, calls for the CTWS to take steps to clear a new site for Commissary Building, move the building, develop structural and architectural plans for a new foundation and renovated interior, seek and obtain funding to move and renovate the building, and establish a committee that will provide ongoing oversight and programming of activities and maintenance; and,

Whereas the Warm Springs Downtown Development Plan of 2005 describes the downtown core of Warm Springs as having "problems that are all too evident – lack of commercial activity, deteriorating buildings, little opportunity" that "could continue well into the future" if these problems are not addressed; and,

Whereas a 2016 community survey conducted by the Warm Springs Community Action Team (WSCAT) of 50 existing and aspiring Warm Springs small business owners indicated that lack of retail sales space and office space, having no buildings to work out of and no downtown business district in which to operate, and no density of businesses to attract customers interested in buying more than one thing, or receiving more than one service, were strong barriers to business success and economic development; and,

Whereas the Strategic Infrastructure Improvement Plan, dated April 2014, commissioned by the Twenty-Sixth Tribal Council and prepared by Cascade Design Professionals, recommends the creation of a $1.915 million, 12,000 square foot small business incubator in downtown Warm Springs; and,

Whereas there is no office space in downtown Warm Springs for privately-owned businesses; and,

Whereas the Warm Springs Community Action Team (WSCAT), which has worked to promote small business through individual development accounts (IDAs), small business courses, coaching, and mentorship, and the creation of an outdoor market, has applied for and received a 3-year, $840,681 grant from the Administration for Native Americans to promote small business through the development of a small business incubator, the provision of 60 IDAs for aspiring small business, and the provision of small business courses for 80 community members; and,

Whereas WSCAT has received $68,360 in pro bono services from Hacker Architects, Walker Macy Landscape Architects, and DCW Cost Management to create a feasibility study package, architectural designs, and a budget estimate, based upon the wishes and perspectives of community members and leaders, and preserving the historical integrity of the Building; now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Twenty-Seventh Tribal Council of the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon, pursuant to Article V, Section 1 (f),(l),(n), and (s) of the Tribal Constitution and By-Laws, that the WSCAT, in partnership with the Secretary-Treasurer/CEO of the Tribal Council and his or her designee, be directed to take further steps necessary to develop the Commissary Building, including fundraising to pay for moving and renovating the building, overseeing the design and construction processes necessary to complete the project, and ensuring that appropriate, fair processes exist to determine who will utilize the space; and,

Be it further resolved that WSCAT be assigned a 10-year renewable lease, from January 1, 2018 – December 31, 2027 to accomplish the above steps and to manage the Commissary Building as a small business incubator. Resolution no. 12,404.

Buy-Back

Whereas the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon has entered into a Cooperative Agreement with the Land Buy-Back Program for Tribal Nations ("Program") to implement land consolidation by offering to purchase fractionated interests on Allotted lands; and,

Whereas the Program may, in addition, include offers for fractionated land interests on tracts with improvements within the boundaries of the Warm Springs Indian Reservation ("Reservation") if a lease is recorded in the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Land Title and Records, Northwest Regional Office; and,

Whereas the Tribes acknowledges that while improvements themselves will not be acquired through Program offers, their existence will be considered in determining the fair market value of the underlying tract of land; and,

Whereas the Tribes acknowledges that all Program purchases will transfer into tribal trust ownership and are subject to the terms of existing leases and encumbrances on the land; and,

Whereas the Tribes requests that the Program include offers for fractionated interests on tracts with improvements on the Reservation in the case of tracts without a recorded lease; and,

Whereas the Tribes will provide lease opportunities to individuals living on tracts with improvements without a recorded lease; now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Twenty-Seventh Tribal Council of the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon, pursuant to Articles 1(c), V(a)(c)(i) and VIII of the Tribal Constitution and By-Laws, that the Tribal Council requests that the Land Buy-Back Program for Tribal Nations include offers for fractionated interests on tracts with improvements without a recorded lease, and, will provide lease opportunities to individuals living on such tracts; and,

Be it further resolved that the Chairman or Vice-Chairman and Secretary-Treasurer/CEO are hereby authorized to execute the necessary documents for and on behalf of the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon to keep on the Reservation and in the possession of the Tribe all records of original allotment owners and other historic records. Resolution no. 12,402.

Economic stewardship

Whereas, through Resolution No. 11,289, the Tribal Council recognized that the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs is faced with significant economic pressures and must seek new economic ventures to maintain existing, and develop new, sources of revenue for the Tribes and create family wage employment opportunities for Tribal Members and affiliates; and,

Whereas, to address these concerns in part, the Tribal Council, also through resolution No. 11,289, established the Economic Stewardship Initiative and funded the Initiative with an appropriation that included initial funding for an Economic Stewardship Coordinator and other capacity building elements; and,

Whereas the funds appropriated for the Economic Stewardship Initiative's Coordinator and other capacity building elements are finite; and,

Whereas in order for the Economic Stewardship Initiative to continue to be operated in a manner that is best structured for success, continued funding beyond the initial appropriation must be made available to support the Economic Stewardship Initiative and other elements of the capacity building component; now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Twenty-Seventh Tribal Council of the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon, pursuant to Article V, Section 1(f),(l) and (t) of the Tribal Constitution and By-Laws, that the Tribal Council hereby authorizes the Secretary-Treasurer/CEO to utilize interest and equity earned on investments, to support continued operation of the Economic Stewardship Initiative; and,

Be it further resolved that the Economic Stewardship Initiative will be reviewed annually to determine progress and continued operation of the program; and,

Be it further resolved, this resolution rescinds Resolution No. 12,235. Resolution No. 12,399.

Resolutions of Tribal Council

Senior Pension

Whereas the Tribal Council has established the Warm Springs Senior Distribution Fund for the purpose of providing payments to Tribal Members who have attained the age of 60; and, Whereas it is the stated policy of the Tribal Council that the fund be managed with the objective of being self-sustaining, however has failed to do so in previous years due distributions being in excess of earnings; and, Whereas the Tribal Council has reviewed the Senior Distribution Fund and the estimated amounts needed to provide for distribution payments in the future; and, Whereas the recommended benefit payments for calendar year 2018 be $300 per month to all seniors reaching the age 60, and, Whereas the approximate amount of $1,897,200 is recommended for expenditure for the purpose of providing such pension payments to approximately 527 Tribal Members for the calendar year 2018; and, Whereas the recommended approximate expenditure of $1,897,200 from the fund is not consistent with the long term objectives of the fund and is projected to be fully expended during 2018 if new revenue is not generated to sustain the program; now, therefore, Be it resolved by the Twenty-Seventh Tribal Council of the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon, pursuant to Article V, Section 1 (f) of the Tribal Constitution and By-Laws as amended, that an amount not to exceed

$1,897,200 is hereby authorized for expenditure from the Senior Distribution Fund for calendar year 2018. Resolution no. 12,396.

U.S., Canada negotiating Columbia treaty

The U.S. State Department and the Canadian government are beginning the renegotiation of the Columbia River Treaty.

The tribes are a necessary part to the process, as the Treaty of 1855 preserves the tribal interests at the river.

The Columbia River Treaty between the U.S. and Canada was ratified in 1964. The document focuses on flood control and hydroelectric power generation.

It calls for Canada to store water behind four major dams on the river, whose headwaters lie in British Columbia. In return, Canada received electricity generated by U.S. dams, plus funding for flood control.

The treaty has no expiration date, but a provision allows for changes, with 10 years notice, beginning in 2024. In 2014 lawmakers and other stakeholders called for the new talks.

The issues won't be easy. Values and priorities have changed over the past 50-plus years, especially in regard to salmon, dam operations, and tribal treaty rights. Negotiations toward the original 1964 treaty included very little consideration of the impact of dams on fish.

Electricity and fisheries will no doubt be key points in the negotiation process.

An example: Electricity users in the Pacific Northwest pay $250 million to $350 million a year to Canada a year for power generation—much higher than the utilities envisioned back in 1964.

In November, seven members of the Washington and Oregon congressional delegations sent a letter to the Canadian ambassador in Washington, D.C., arguing that the monetary sums are way too high. In the letter, the bipartisan group estimated that Canada receives almost 10 times the benefits that the Northwest receives.
