Now serving at the Plateau Travel Plaza

The Confederated Tribes and Indian Head Casino hosted the soft opening of the Plateau Travel Plaza last week. There was an opening for tribal members, and then the Travel Plaza opened to the public.

The Grand Opening is set for Friday, April 6. This will feature many special events, from 10 a.m. until early afternoon.

The Plateau opening was a welcome and exciting day for the many who attended.

"I'm especially encouraged by the staffing," said Mavis Shaw, Gaming Commission vice chairwoman. "We have many tribal members on the staff." The food was very good as well, Mrs. Shaw said. "I think this will be great—I've already heard many nice comments," she said.

The diesel and gas prices are very competitive, drawing many customers; as have the gaming room, restaurant and store. Long-haul trucks were already stopping there on the opening day.

Tribal members receive a 5-cent fuel reduction at the Plateau.

There could also be in-store discounts for members, as a system to accomplish this is being worked out, said Eric Angel, Travel Plaza general manager.

Soon there will be the large sign at the entranceway along the highway, as the details have been worked out with ODOT, Mrs. Shaw said.

Some of the features: Fuel discounts and reward points. Convenient location at 215 Cherry Lane, Jefferson County Industrial Park. Self and full service fuel stations.

Seventy truck spots in a secure lot. Laundry and shower facilities. Home-style sit-down dining, and grand & go selections. Fresh hot coffee, and more.

Tribal Council Chairman Austin Greene (above, center) addresses the opening gathering, as Desirae Wallace, shift supervisor, holds the ribbon before the opening.

Members receive Cobell land buy-back offers

Landowners from the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs are seeing nearly $3.7 million in offers for their fractional land interests on the reservation.

The offers from the Land Buy-Back Program for Tribal Nations went out to 677 individuals, according to the latest data.

Participation in the buy-back is entirely voluntary. Interested sellers have until April 24 to accept.

The buy-back program is an opportunity for landowners to consider fair market value offers for their interests in fractionated land.

The program is part of the Cobell settlement, which set aside nearly $2 billion—of the $3.4 billion total settlement—for tribes to acquire fractionated interests on reservations in Indian Country.

The goal is to remedy the fractionation problem, stemming from the previous policy of allotments.

Through fractionation, parcels become owned by a growing number of individuals, rendering them unproductive.

The buy-back, administered by the Department of the Interiors in cooperations with tribes, is intended to help promote tribal self-determination.

This could be accomplished as the tribal entity acquires the fractionated interests, and can then determine the best use of the property.

Meanwhile, the Warm Springs Buy-Back program has a new outreach specialist on board (see page 4 for details).

Pageant for Lil' Miss Warm Springs

Warm Springs Recreation is getting ready for the 2018 Lil' Miss Warm Springs Pageant, coming up in April.

Meanwhile, Recreation is hosting the Lil' Miss Warm Springs programs on Wednesday evenings at the Community Center Social Hall.

"The girls are really making progress," said Nor Sampson, of Warm Springs Recreation.

They're learning traditions of the tribes, and cultural and unwritten laws. They made tule mats a two weeks ago, and last week learned to make Wing dresses.

The program starts at 5:45 on Wednesdays, and is open to the public. Parents often take part, and are encouraged to attend.

The Lil' Miss Warm Springs Pageant categories are:

Lil' Miss Warm Springs, 9-11 years of age. Junior Miss Warm Springs, 12-14 years of age. Senior Miss Warm Springs, 15-17 years of age.

The 2018 Lil' Miss Warm Springs Pageant will be on Wednesday evening, April 25 at the Warm Springs Community Center Social Hall.

The current Lil' Miss Warm Springs are Lil' Miss Warm Springs Kiahna Allen, Junior Lil' Miss Warm Springs Gigi David, and Senior Lil' Miss Warm Springs Coreena Stwyer.

Academy students illustrate new book of Ichishkín

The introduction to the new book—Conversation in Ichishkín—makes the observation:

"Today, in 2018, there are only 22 language speakers of Warm Springs Ichishkín. By picking up this book and flipping through to view the beautiful artworks and language in written form, you are helping to build awareness of the dire need to save our languages for generations to come."

Conversations in Ichishkín—dedicated to all who want to learn the language—was published this month, during March Literacy Night at the Warm Springs Academy. The book is a project of fourth-graders and their teachers at the Academy, and the Warm Springs Culture and Heritage Department.

Students in three fourth-grade classes—Ms. Bluebird, Mrs. Nelle and Mr. Marren's classes—did all of the artwork for the book. Arlita Rhoan, Suzie Slockish and Jefferson Greene translated the phrases into the Native language.

In the process the fourth-graders learned the phrases—their meaning and pronunciation:

'My name is _____' ('Inmí wanícht násh wá _____') ... 'Who are you?' ('Shin nam wa?') ... 'Where are you? I am at Warm Springs.' ('Mná nam wa? ínash wa Warm Springspa.')

And the conversations continue: 'Mish nam wa? Ínash wa Níix...' 'Mná nam wáta?'...

CPS building ready for open house

The Warm Springs community is invited to an open house and blessing of the wholly renovated Children’s Protective Services building.

The open house will be this Friday, March 30 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The CPS building is new in that the interior and exterior have been completely renovated: New floors and ceilings, windows, paint, furniture, and exterior improvements.

Renovation of the CPS building was a long-standing need of the tribes. “We need a space as safe and pleasant as possible for the children and families,” as stated by Alyssa Macy, Chief Operations Officer.

D.McMechan/Spilyay

Outside work still going on at the Vern Jackson Home.

The original idea for CPS, back in 2010, was to build a new facility, and at the time

CPS began setting aside funding for the project. Unfortunately it never happened. Then last year tribal management, CPS and Council weighed the options, and decided on a renovation of the existing building, plus the addition of an adjacent transition facility in the Vern Jackson, also remodeled.

The CPS work began last winter, done by Warm Springs Construction.

They were putting finishing touches up until a couple of weeks ago, and the building is now complete.

Carlos Calica will take part in an Eagle Feather ceremony at the USS Arizona Memorial in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

Carlos is planning to attend with sons Quindon, 20, and Trenton, 17, and aunt Linda Meanus.

The ship still lies at the bottom of the bay.

The Eagle Feather ceremony will be the first time in 76 years since the bombing that any Native ceremony has been held to honor fallen veterans. Mr. Calica, who works at tribal Credit, is known in Western states for his skills as a powwow master of ceremonies.

Locally, he MC's at Pi-Ume-Sha, Lincoln's Powwow, and the Warm Springs Veterans Powwow.

He also MC's at powwows through the West, including at powwows at eight of the Pac-12 colleges.

Letters to the editor

Tip Line

Our community faces with many challenges when it comes to the battle of illegal drug possession, delivery and usage, property crimes and other criminal activity.

Because of this, the Warm Springs Police Department is reaching out to the community members to assist with this fight.

There is an anonymous tip line that was set up several years ago to help gather information from individuals who wanted to remain anonymous but assist in providing information regarding any criminal activity.

The Tip Line is a phone line where there is no caller identification program attached. The caller can leave a message after the recorded message, and it is checked daily by a staff member.

So we are asking the members of our community to assist in helping us fight and deter criminal activity.

We are aware of the fact that witnesses are afraid to be witnesses or victims because of they are afraid for their own safety as well as the safety of their families or property.

If anyone has any information about any criminal activity, we are asking that you please call the Warm Springs Police Department Tip Line and leave your information. It is your choice if you want to leave a contact number.

Warm Springs Police Department Anonymous Tip Line: 541-553-2202.

Lt. Starla Green, Warm Springs Police Department.

Movin' Mountains

This year, Warm Springs participation in the Movin' Mountains fitness challenge is up.

This may be related to the weather conditions, but we also decided to do a dedicated day of measurements in Warm Springs, back in January, to make it easier for Warm Springs participants to join.

We also did the mid-point measurements on last week. Ending measurements will be on Thursday May 10.

The challenge has the strong support from not only the IHS Diabetes Program staff, but by the tribal community health staff.

Special thanks to Edmund Francis for his continued purchase of Hydro Flasks for all participants that meet their 5 percent weight-loss goal. He has done this for the past five years, and is appreciated.

Thank you to Kacey Conyers, Registered Dietician, for doing a nutrition talk for all participants; and to Montell Elliott for partnering with myself to provide a goal-setting class at the beginning of the challenge. She also secured us a dedicated place to do confidential measurements.

The Movin' Mountain program actually morphed from the 'Biggest Loser in Warm Springs Challenge.' I started that program in Warm Springs in 2005, when I was the Community Wellness Coordinator for the tribe, hired through the community directed Diabetes Prevention grant.

When I left that employment and went to work for the county, I combined that program with Movin' Mountain here in Madras, and the county-wide version was launched.

Over the years the program has continued to change, to make it more fair for all participants to succeed. And yes, this year I suspect this is not going to be an exception to that.

Historically, each year some Warm Springs residents always place in the challenge. I truly believe this program would not be as successful without their participation and the support I get from organizations in Warm Springs.

Along with that it is the intent of the program to give everyone an opportunity to make some healthy lifestyle changes and have a longer healthier life!

Carolyn Harvey, Community Health Educator, Jefferson County Public Health.

No pet clinic

It looks like the free Warm Springs spay, neuter and vaccination clinic will not happen this spring in Warm Springs.

The problem is the lack of a facility in which to provide the service.

Bend Spay+Neuter for several months in late 2016 into 2017 used the Greeley Heights community building. During that time, they performed 276 dog spay/neuter surgeries, and over 350 vaccinations.

With this building no longer available for the service, Bend Spay+Neuter have not been able to locate a new facility in Warm Springs.

An idea is to use some endowment funding to purchase and equip a mobile clinic that could serve the reservation. If this approach is successful, the service could resume in the fall.

Day at a time

Hi again to all. Well, I'm living in another nursing home. This one is in Duck City, Eugene. I'm now in the third one I've been in since 1987, and I hope it's the last one I have to live in.

I learned my lesson about drinking some alcohol and riding a vehicle with others who are drinking alcohol.

I will not drink any more alcohol. I know my life is very important here on earth. I just have to take it one day at a time.

An event to memorialize and honor Warm Springs wildland fire fighters past and present is being planned for later this year by Luther Clements. You can learn more by checking out his Facebook Page.

Outreach specialist joins land buy-back program

Tiffiney Yallup has joined the Warm Springs Land Buy-Back program. She is the outreach specialist with the Buy-Back.

Her job is to help landowners who have received Buy-Back bids, giving advice on the options that are available.

The current Buy-Back deadline for those who have received bids is coming up on April 24. For information you can reach Tiffiney at 541-615-0997. Or ask for Randy Scott, Warm Springs Buy-Back coordinator. Both Randy and Tiffiney have their offices at the Warm Springs Media Center.

As background on the nearly $2 billion dollar program, happening on many reservations across the nation:

The program works to unify fractionated tribal land bases that resulted from the failed historical policy of allotment.

To landowners: You will receive fair market value for any land interests you decide to sell, based on your share in the whole tract, plus $75 per offer packet. Funds will be deposited into your Individual Indian Money (IIM) account.

You do not have to sell—Participation is purely voluntary. By choosing to sell your land, you may create opportunities to make Indian lands more productive for the Confederated Tribes and the community of the reservation.

Tiffiney Yallup is the outreach specialist with the Warm Springs Land-Buy Back program. The number is 541-615-0997.

Twenty-Five Years at Museum

The Museum at Warm Springs in March celebrated its Silver Anniversary, marking 25 years of preserving and celebrating tribal art and culture.

The celebration day featured tribal dancers and drummers, and the opening of a new exhibit, Twanat ~ Celebrating Our Legacy.

The exhibit includes rare items from the museum's permanent collection, and will be on display through late May. This unique exhibit displays archival images, capturing the tribal way of life.

Artifact objects will include clothing, beaded accessories, basketry and more.

In April the museum will host its annual Honor Dinner. The dinner and awards ceremony will be on April 14 at the World Forestry Center in Portland. The museum will be presenting the Twanat Award to former Museum at Warm Springs executive director Michael Hammond.

Kah-Nee-Ta seeks members for 2018 cultural activities

Kah-Nee-Ta Resort and Spa will host a meeting for Kah-Nee-Ta Salmon Bake dancers and cooks, craft instructors and story tellers.

This is a chance to discuss the schedule for the 2018 Kah-Nee-Ta cultural events. The resort is asking tribal members interested in participating in storytelling, cultural crafts or salmon bakes to attend the meeting.

If you are unable to attend, please call the Convention services office to pick up the required paperwork. The paperwork must be completed for vendors. Call 541-553-1112 ext. 3436.

The meeting—at 10 a.m. on Saturday, April 14 in the Kah-Nee-Ta Council Room—is open to all members who are interested in discussing the 2018 season. This is also a sign-up time for artists.

In order to be on the 2018 Cultural roster, individuals must attend the meeting or schedule and appointment with the Kah-Nee-Ta Catering department. All paperwork is due by May 12.

For information please call Janaiya Rowe at 541-553-1112 ext. 3482.

Downtown planning meeting

Tribal Planning will host the second Downtown planning meeting this Wednesday evening, March 28, from 4 to 6 p.m. at the gymnasium of the former elementary school.

Planning invites all community members to attend and provide input on future plans.

The goal is to finalize a development plan for this area by the end of summer.

This plan will then be used to seek funding and investment to make the plan a reality.

The first first meeting, held in February 20, provided attendees with an opportunity to learn about previous planning efforts for the downtown area.

Planning and the Warm Springs Community Action Team also talked about the WSCAT Old Commissary small business development project.

For those who were unable to attend, previous downtown planning documents include the Warm Springs Town Center: Property Summary, from 2012; and the Warm Springs Downtown Development Plan of 2005. These can be found on the Tribal Member Portal: warm Springs.me/

Check under 'Documents -- Reports'

Everyone is invited to participate in this process by attending planning meetings, or by submitting comments to tribal staff via email: publicrelations@wstribe.org

For additional meeting information, please contact Lonny Macy at: lonny.macy@wstribe.org

Planning efforts are supported with funding from a USDA Rural Business Development grant.

Ichishkín: book sales help next year's project

The students, working in pairs, used their imaginations to come up with the colorful drawings that illustrate each of the phrases.

Conversation in Ichishkín includes a glossary with a vocabulary and some grammar. Making the drawings, and learning the words in Ichishkín were the best parts of working on the books, the students say.

With the public release of the book this month, you can now buy a copy for $20, all proceeds going back to the fourth-graders; so they can make a similar book next year.

Books from last year's project—the first in the series, about Legends—are also available at the Academy.

As the students say: 'Páiyu mádash kwatanáwa'! (Very much to all of you, Thank you!)

A Message from Ken Parshall
Superintendent

Working together to improve teaching and learning

With only a few months left in my first year as superintendent for the district, I want to express my appreciation for our teachers and staff. We have spent this school year focused on improving our craft to support student success through professional learning communities.

Support from our families

I would also like to send a special thanks to our families who attended the recent community meetings in Warm Springs and Madras to ask questions and make suggestions in support of education and our children. We talked about graduation rates, state testing, attendance goals and other ideas to help students be successful.

School Safety

As our nation searches for answers to make schools safer, I want to take a moment to thank our local law enforcement for their on-going support and responsiveness. I am very proud of the partnerships we share with the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office and the Madras and Warm Springs Police Departments. We will continue working together to monitor and enhance our safety efforts.

Happy Spring to all. I welcome your feedback and look forward to a successful end to the school year.

— Ken Parshall, JCSD Superintendent

Staff Feature: Brad Padgett

JCSD is lucky to have an outstanding team of educators who are dedicated to creating a bright future for students. Meet Brad Padgett, Educational Assistant at Bridges High School. Brad coached wrestling for one year before taking the position of Educational Assistant.

1. Why were you inspired to pursue this career?

This is a career that can have a huge impact on the future. I want to encounter a future where people live out their options with purpose. What better way to do my part in this than through a career of teaching.

2. What do you do on a daily basis to help students succeed and overcome barriers?

On a daily basis, I check all the students' online progress and schedule sitdown meetings with them to find out what they need. I meet with students every week so I can present necessary adjustments and make sure that each one can feel they have the potential and motivation to continue their journey towards graduation. I choose to be quick to listen and understand rather than quick to advise or push my opinion and it seems to work.

3. What is your favorite part about your job?

My favorite part of my job is all of it. I have never worked in a place that has respected my strengths and developed my weaknesses in a way that is empowering. That starts from the top down and I feel it is infectious to our students. I really enjoy seeing these kids every day and look forward to what they may bring to the table.

4. What advice do you have for students struggling in school?

The advice I have is... this will be the easiest yet hardest struggle of your life. Once you overcome this one you will be ready for the next struggle life presents. The real test is how much joy you can find in the present so that your future is full of joy. Life is full of struggles but there will always be a blessing in the end, if you choose to walk through and trust the process.

5. What are your hobbies and interests outside of work?

- I love to spend time with my son and wife.
- I love to hunt.
- Fishing is the best. If I had the choice that would be all I would do.
- I love the Central Oregon sunrises and sunsets.
- I am a food lover.
- I look forward to climbing mountains in the future.
- I enjoy rock climbing with my father-in law Rick Krause.
- I was a 4x All-American in college wrestling and fought MMA for a couple of years.

WSK8 family advocate makes sure students have what they need to attend school

Thanks to a grant from the Tribal Absenteeism Pilot Program, WSK8 launched a new program for encouraging students to attend school. The Family Advocate Program helps to remove barriers to getting an education.

WSK8 Family Advocate Tony Cortazar plays an important role in this mission. Cortazar grew up ranching in Eastern Oregon before moving to Warm Springs 25 years ago. He came to Warm Springs for rodeo, but since then, he has been involved in various other leadership roles, such as coaching, substitute teaching, and heading a wildland fire crew for Warm Springs Fire Management.

Through coaching Mat Club, football, wrestling, and track in Madras, Cortazar found his roots in the community. He has a great reputation for being a positive mentor and role model. As a former all-star football player and a five-time world champion for the Wild Horse Rider competition, Cortazar has many insights to share about accomplishing goals and dreams.

As Family Advocate, Cortazar helps students with transportation, clothing needs, and communication between families and schools. Cortazar aims to make school a more welcoming place and bring up attendance rates.

"I work mostly with grades K-4 and when I'm in the hallway and the kids leave their parents and run up to give me a hug, I know they feel safe, loved and wanted at school," said Cortazar. "I hope that when they are older and get to choose whether or not to go to school, they will pick school."

Cortazar and his wife, Darylynne have a son in second grade and a four-year-old daughter who will start kindergarten next year. Darylynne is a Warm Springs Tribal Member.

"I've been around reservations all my life," added Cortazar. "Umatilla, Yakima and now Warm Springs."

Cortazar believes that with the help of the Family Advocate Program, more kids will get the education they deserve so they can be successful in life and bring more back to the reservation.

WSK8 Family Advocate Tony Cortazar visits with students during lunch.

WSK8 students show their skills in annual Iron Chef competition

Contestants brought their A games to the kitchen during this year's Iron Chef competition. They cooked a variety of foods from pasta to quesadillas and were scored by a panel of judges who were thoroughly impressed by each dish.

Where I'm from...poem

I am from the table of respect from the kid table to the adult table.
I am from the house which everyone grew up in – it's old but it makes you feel like you belong.
I am from the land of trees. To the blade of grass whose limbs I remember as if they were my own nature land.
I'm from the land you walk on and the air you breathe.
From my mother and father.
I'm from the attitude and wise and from the respect to respect everyone.
I'm from the saying never let anyone drag you down but to keep moving forward with your head help up high
And "Painful reminder of why. It can get brighter the further you put it behind you."
I'm from a family that always has potato salad for every holiday and birthday
I'm from the womb of my mother and a place which I am loved.
Where my grandmother makes tasty food like stew and homemade candy treats to share.
From family that had their own tough times— each suffered and survived.
By looking at the children knowing you don't want them to suffer.
Their times of suffering is where no other has known but only heard the story. But that's all we need to know and the family will be there to protect you.

Twanat: Celebrating Our Legacy

Museum curator Natalie Kirk made excellent use of the museum’s permanent collection to create the Twanat: Celebrating Our Legacy exhibit. There are panels giving the history of the museum itself, plus a beautiful and large display of beaded bags, woven bags, regalia, dolls and other items from the permanent collection. Natalie wishes to thank the Pottlatch Fund for their support of this exhibit.

Report: Sea lions now in tributaries

Sea lions are beginning to move into even smaller Northwest river tributaries where they had never been seen before, according to Oregon wildlife managers.

In these tributaries the sea lions are threatening some of the healthiest stocks of the salmon and steelhead fish.

The sea lions have also been spotted in small rivers in Washington state.

Biologists this spring started trapping the sea lions in the Willamette River and releasing them at the coast.
