Ten students of the tribes on college teams

The Confederated Tribes has ten students attending college who have also made one of their school’s athletic teams. This is the most number of students of the tribes to make teams at college during the same school year, said Carroll Dick, of tribal Higher Education. These student-athletes are:

Harlee David, playing Soccer at the College of Siskiyou.

Jayden Davis, College of Marin, playing Basketball.

Lynden Harry, College of the Siskiyou, Basketball.

Dylan Heath, Lane Community College, Track and Field.

Derrek Main, Haskell Indian Nations, Golf and then Basketball.

Gabrielle Smith, George Fox University, Swimming.

Jeremiah Smith, Football, West Hills College Coalinga, California.

Natalia Tewee and Kayla Tewee, Northwest Indian College, Basketball.

DaRia White, Butte College, Basketball.

Wolf OR-93 may still be alive in Calif.

An endangered gray wolf last year and early this year traveled at least 1,000 miles from the Warm Springs Reservation to the California Central Coast. The wolf, OR-93, probably left to find a female and start its own pack, said Austin Smith Jr., Branch of Natural Resources wildlife biologist.

OR-93 was wearing a tracking collar, allowing the tribes’ and other wildlife officials to follow its GPS position, as it moved south. Then early this year the collar stopped giving signals. Speculation was the animal may have been killed, accidentally or otherwise.

However, just recently California wildlife officials received multiple reports of a wolf with a purple collar in northern Ventura County. They were able to confirm wolf tracks in the vicinity. And the visual sightings seem to match OR-93.

If confirmed to be the wolf, originally from the White River pack from the reservation, this would be the farthest south in California that any gray wolf has been documented since 1922.

OR-93 was born on the reservation about three and a half years ago. The animal was among the first of the litter born to the pair of wolves that had traveled, probably from Idaho, to the Warm Springs Reservation. The tribes’ Branch of Natural Resources first spotted the wolf pair, and then the pups in 2018.

OR-93 left the reservation in the winter months of 2020. Its journey has now made it among the most renowned living wild animals of the West.

Membership input on 2022 draft tribal budget

The Tribal Council and staff have developed a draft 2022 budget for the organization, with a bottom line of $16,627,983. This is $323,142 above the current year budget expenditures of $16,304,841.

Some of the enterprises, especially Power and Water and Timber, saw decreases in their dividends to the tribes. Power and Water, for instance, saw a decrease of $1.5 million from last year’s $1.8 million. And total Timber revenue is down more than $1.5 million.

However, the American Rescue Plan Act—ARPA—would contribute $4,699,183 to the 2022 budget, according to the draft document (see page 2 for details).

While the overall non-Timber enterprise dividends were down by $1.2 million, Indian Head Casino would see an increase of $200,000 to its dividend; and Warm Springs Composite Products would see an increase of $250,000, according to the draft presentation. The carbon sequestration program is also seeing a complete reduction, of $1 million from the previous year of $1 million, though this was anticipated.

The Senior Pension will see an increase of $92,000 from 2021 to $2,144,100 in 2022. Some other notes: Fines and fees are projected to stay about the same at $809,000 for 2022; total interest revenue would also stay the same at $500,000; and overall Community Assistance—funeral grants, emergency fire relief, Miss Warm Springs, etc.—would also stay the same at $191,500.

Details on the tribal department proposals for 2022 are in the draft budget, as seen on page 2 of this publication: The bottom line difference in department funding would increase by $248,070 to $11.8 million. Public Safety would see an increase of $180,620 to $2,650,316.

The draft budget mail-out and questionnaire is scheduled to go out on October 16. The draft and questionnaire will also be delivered during the mid October Senior Meals deliveries.

Like last year, there can be no District or General Council meetings regarding this draft budget, for Covid-19 safety reasons.

Latest covid demographics

The October 4 Covid-19 update from the Response Team indicates there were 35 active cases on the reservation, and 55 close contacts receiving daily monitoring.

Late September saw an unfortunate increase in covid cases on the reservation, as shown at right by the weekly tracking chart.

Health and tribal officials ask community members to please use all Covid-19 precautions; and the vaccine is encouraged for all who are eligible. Call 541-553-2131 for information, or to schedule an appointment.

The number of community members with at least the first vaccination dose is now almost 3,000. Fully vaccinated among the community is close to 2,500.

Cases by week on the reservation, showing the recent upswing in positive testing.

Another 31 have received their booster shot.

The Warm Springs Health and Wellness Center had conducted

14,517 total tests, as of the latest Response Team report earlier this week.

Total positives was at 1,064 since the pandemic began. And there have been 26 deaths.

See pages 2 and 3 of this publication for more demographic details.

State steelhead fishing closure affects tribal guides

Due to the poor returns of steelhead to the Columbia River Basin, the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife is extending steelhead fishing closures on the Deschutes River through December 31.

The current forecast for steelhead above Bonneville Dam indicates that this will be one of the lowest runs on record. ODFW said it has been monitoring the fish passing over Sherars Falls, and the Deschutes run is mirroring those elsewhere in the Columbia River Basin.

Tribal members can fish as they normally do in the Deschutes, said Mark Manion, Harvest Manager with the tribes’ Branch of Natural Resources.

The state rule does, however, affect the tribal fishing guides who take non-member clients for trips on the Deschutes, Mr. Manion said. Non-members would be unable to fish for steelhead but can fish for trout through October 31, Manion said.

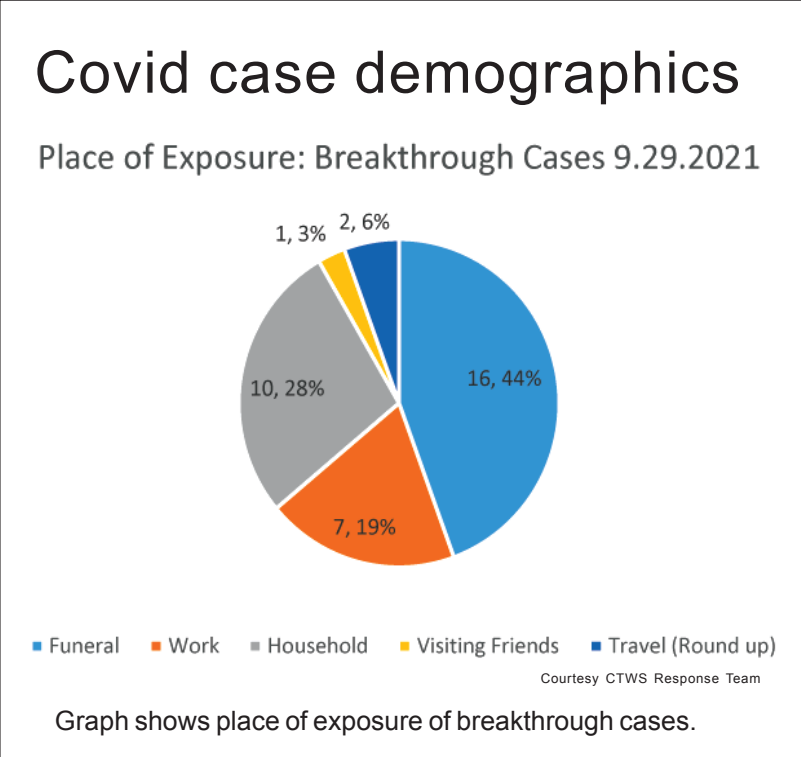

State closure of steelhead fishing will provide protection for wild steelhead and ensure that hatchery broodstock and fish reintroduction programs needs are also met, ODFW said.

“The closure to steelhead angling implemented in September had a dramatic impact on the number of steelhead encountered by anglers as compared to recent years. Extending these closures to the entire basin will ensure protection of these iconic fish for the remainder of this run year,” said Jason Seals, district biologist for the Lower Deschutes.

“We understand this has an impact on anglers and local communities, and it’s a tough decision, but the right one in this case,” continued Seals.

“We appreciate anglers understanding and support for these actions as necessary to help future generations of Deschutes steelhead.”

ODFW is also closing angling for coho salmon early.

Register to vote in November election

The last day to register to vote in Jefferson County in the upcoming November 2 election is Tuesday, October 12. A post mark date of October on the registration form counts as a valid registration.

The ballots will then go out on October 13. There is no Voters Pamphlet for this election. The County Clerk recommends mail-in ballots by October 28 to ensure receipt by November 2.

On the ballot is a $24 million bond measure for the Jefferson County School District 509-J; and a ballot measure that would fund operation of the Jefferson County Jail for five years. Regarding the school district bond proposal:

Academy classrooms

The school bond would address health, safety and security matters in all of the district's schools.

If it passes, the bond would fund the construction of six new early learning classrooms at the Warm Springs Academy.

Madras High School work would include a new roof and insulation; upgrades to the Career and Technical Education area; heating, cooling and ventilation improvements; a new soccer concession and restroom area, and facility and field lights.

The other schools in the district would also see improvements. Full details are available at the school district bond website. You can find the site at: 509jcscholbond.org

The school district has not passed a bond measure since 2012.

That bond paid for half of the construction of the Warm Springs Academy, as the tribes funded the other half. The 2012 measure also funded the Madras Performing Arts Center at the high school.

County jail levy

This measure is for a five-year operating levy, not a permanent tax rate. The levy can provide funds that can only be used for costs associated with inmate security and county jail operations. "This increase is necessary to meet cost increases attributable to inflation, inmate medical expenses, insurance and PERS," the Notice of Measure Election reads.

It is estimated the jail levy would raise $3.1 million in 2022-23; $3.2 million in 2023-24; almost $3.3 million the following year; nearly $3.4 million the following; and almost $3.5 million in the final year; for a total of $16,507,942 over the five years.

Day honoring victims, survivors of residential Native school system

Canada last week marked its first National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, highlighting the history of discrimination and harm toward First Nation communities of that country.

Canada's Prime Minister Justin Trudeau said the day recognizes the "harms, injustices, and intergenerational trauma that Indigenous peoples have faced—and continue to face—because of the residential school system, systemic racism, and the discrimination that persists in our society."

"We must all learn about the history and legacy of residential schools," Trudeau said. "It's only by facing these hard truths, and righting these wrongs, that we can move forward together toward a more positive, fair and better future."

Thousands of mostly indigenous children were separated from their families and forced to attend residential schools between the 19th century and the 1990s.

At least 150,000 Indigenous children from across the country were impacted.

Warm Springs Commodities and the Warm Springs Food Bank are located in the Industrial Park in the same building as the Department of Human Services office. Commodities is open 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Thursday (closed during the noon hour). The Foodbank is open Wednesday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. (closed during the noon hour). There are also additional food box opportunities. You can learn more about food programs by calling 541-553-3579.

CTWS Sanitation update

The Sanitation department is aware of all of the dumpsters located throughout Warm Springs being full and over capacity: The dumpsters for some businesses, located in some neighborhoods (Sidwalter, Palmer Lane and Hamlets) and at the Simnasho Longhouse and Simnasho transfer station.

The garbage trucks that normally empty these on a weekly basis are down for an indeterminate amount of time. The truck mechanics are doing all they can to get it fixed, and they will get back to us when it's fully operational within quality standards of safety.

The Sanitation Department is working diligently on alternatives to getting these dumpsters emptied to the best of their abilities with a private company willing to negotiate to assist.

They ask for patience and assistance from the community: You can take garbage to the landfill for disposal until the dumpsters are able to be emptied. This does not pertain to residential totes that are for households, just for the departments and neighborhoods.

Public safety

(Note: This letter is shared regarding recent actions at the Jefferson County, city of Madras and 509-J school board local governments.)

My mother taught me to not say anything unless you say something nice. Sorry Mom. 'Godsmacked' is the only word I have for our Jefferson County and Madras city elected leaders who absolutely refuse to solve or address our issues with Covid-19.

Repeatedly, they each propose clever dodges to avoid compliance with masking and distancing mandates.

Our county issues an emergency disaster warning.

Our Sheriff threatens to release prisoners because their staff is only 40 percent vaccinated.

Employees threaten to resign if they must be vaccinated. I say, 'Goodbye.'

Many refuse to wear or enforce masks and distancing in public buildings and spaces.

From the City Council agenda: "Due to governor mandates, masks or face coverings are required in City Council chambers and there are no social distancing requirements at this time."

"It's important to note that masks may be removed for speaking into microphones for the purpose of improved communication."

"As always, if you are not feeling well, or feel more comfortable staying home, please take advantage of the Zoom offering."

And yet photos show that four on the City Council dias were never masked during the recent meeting. Nor was it enforced inside the chamber.

Lead and be a role model we would wish for our children and community. Care for our community.

Enforce civility at public meetings. As a retired teacher in 509-J, I would not tolerate such behavior. (Threats, intimidation, exclusion, insensitivity, inequality, non-transparency.)

Let City Council, County Commissioners and School Board greet the public at the door and hand out masks and sanitizer. There are signs posted, but not enforced.

Encourage leaders to wear a mask if for nothing else to show they care. Do what you want in private, but we are talking about public spaces here—For the public.

The recent actions at the school board, county and city meetings were inexcusable and embarrassing. It's like you folks believe that we do not care. We are saying to you: "We want to feel safe and protected in this town." We depend on the city and county and school district to

How to tell if you need another covid vaccine

Did you receive the Pfizer Covid-19 vaccine? If yes, then you may be eligible for a booster vaccine, if you are one of the following:

Sixty-five years or older. Eighteen years and older with underlying medical conditions (all intellectual and developmental disabilities are considered underlying medical conditions in Oregon).

Eighteen and older and live or work a high-risk setting.

You can get a Pfizer booster at least six months after your last dose.

Are you immuno-compromised? If you answered yes, and you received the Moderna or Pfizer vaccine:

You need a total three doses of the same mRNA vaccine, either Pfizer or Moderna.

You should get a third dose of the vaccine at least 28 days after your second dose.

All three doses count as your initial vaccine series.

If you get a third dose, you do not need a booster shot (only available in Pfizer).

Helping address veterans homelessness

by Frankie Williams
Warm Springs Tribal Veterans Representative

Frankie Williams, W.S. Veterans Representative

Two community groups dedicated to providing housing and other support to veterans facing homelessness and other challenges have joined forces to provide over 100 beds.

Veterans Legacy Oregon and Housing Our Veterans joined forces last week, with the signing a memorandum of understanding.

Lorie Perkins founded Housing Our Veterans in 2005 to secure housing for veterans facing Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, drug and alcohol abuse, and other health issues.

Veterans Legacy was founded by Dr. John LeBow, and acquired the former Lane County Sheriff's Forest Inmate Camp in 2016, renaming it Camp Alma. The camp uses "a rural residential setting for care with a multifaceted treatment regimen," the group says.

According to the Veterans Legacy and Housing Our Veterans:

Between the two local organizations, over 100 beds will be available for veteran care.

Ideally, a veteran in need will begin care and rehabilitation at Camp Alma for an average stay of six months.

He would then sequence into the care at Housing Our Veterans for about one year.

This time frame coincides with studies that show that an 18-month concentrated care management paradigm results in a vastly improved success rate for reintegration into the community at large.

"Shared goals of returning veterans in need to the community clean and sober with realistic employment potential, stable housing and the need for indefinite case management made the agreement a natural alliance between the two entities," the groups said.

"While applicable to male veterans only at present, both organizations agree that an appropriate treatment pathway is needed for female veterans as well, with development to begin in the near future."

Frankie Williams, Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs Tribal Veterans Service Officer, 541-460-0605.

Flu season

In addition to the Covid-19 pandemic, this is also flu season. You can avoid getting the flu bug by being vaccinated.

Warm Springs IHS is offering flu shots on weekday mornings (except Wednesdays) 8:30 to 11:30 a.m., and afternoons 1:30-3:30.

The booster shot and do I need it?

Booster shots have been recommended for some people who received the Pfizer BioNTech Covid-19 vaccine. Booster shots are given when the protection from a vaccination begins to decrease. Getting a booster can help people continue their immunity for a longer period.

It's important to know that all Covid-19 vaccines are working well to prevent severe illness, hospitalization, and death, even against the widely circulating Delta variant.

Booster shots of the Pfizer vaccine are to be given six months after the second shot. Here's a list of groups who are eligible for the booster:

These groups should receive a booster dose of Pfizer:

People 65 and older; people living in a long-term care facility; and people 50-64 with underlying medical conditions.

Those vaccinated with Pfizer who are 18 through 64 years may get the booster if they:

Have underlying medical conditions, and are at higher risk of Covid-19 exposure and transmission due to occupational or institutional setting.

You can find booster shots at the clinic, and anywhere else that Covid-19 vaccine is available. You don't need to prove that you need the booster. There is enough supply of vaccine, but health care workers are extremely busy. You may need to make an appointment, or wait a while to get in for the shot. But don't worry, Your current Pfizer vaccination still offers strong protection against serious Covid-19 illness. The clinic number to call is 541-553-2131.

First Indigenous Peoples Day at COCC

Central Oregon Community College is pleased to share its lineup of free community events on Monday, October 11, celebrating Indigenous Peoples Day.

The day follows the recent COCC board decision to formally recognize the second Monday in October as Indigenous Peoples Day.

The morning will include a land acknowledgement discussion, 9-10 a.m., held virtually. There will be a talk on Christopher Columbus from a Native perspective, noon to 1 p.m., in-person at the COCC Bend campus.

There will be an educators' workshop titled 'Incorporating Indigenous Perspectives in the Classroom,' 4-5 p.m. in-person; and a video screening of The Columbus Controversy, 5:30-6:30 p.m., in-person.

"For our inaugural Indigenous Peoples Day at COCC, we're featuring some incredible learning opportunities and forums for opening dialogue," said Christy Walker, director of the college's diversity and inclusion program.

"We're excited to help bring the community together for this important recognition."

All in-person events will take place in Wille Hall at the Bend campus's Coats Campus Center, with masks required and distancing protocols followed. No registration is required, though Wille Hall is limited to 52 individuals. Learn more about COCC's Indigenous Peoples Day at cocc.edu

Some more specifics on the October 11 events:

Acknowledgement

The Zoom-based land acknowledgement discussion, 9-10 a.m., features COCC Native American program coordinator Michelle Cary, of the Seneca-Cayuga Nation. She will lead the discussion on the purpose and impact of land acknowledgements, exploring how COCC's land acknowledgement was created, and why it took over a year to create the living document.

Contact mcary@cocc.edu for the Zoom link.

For the in-person talk from noon to 1 p.m., in Wille Hall:

Join COCC world languages instructor Gabriann Hall, of the Klamath Tribes, for a talk on Christopher Columbus from a Native perspective, an overview that separates fact from fiction.

The talk will then shift to the contributions of indigenous people and current issues impacting Native communities.

From 4-5 p.m. in Wille Hall, Native American college prep coordinator Kelsey Freeman will present 'Incorporating Indigenous Perspectives in the Classroom,' an interactive workshop that explores concrete ideas for intentional, accurate teaching of Native affairs and how to bring Native American perspectives into the classroom.

The workshop will discuss the manifestations of racism that Native American students often encounter in educational settings and how to better support those students.

Finally, from 5:30-6:30 p.m. in Wille Hall, COCC will screen a documentary titled The Columbus Controversy, with follow-up discussion moderated by Michelle Cary, COCC's Native American program coordinator.

For specific information on these events, contact Christy Walker, director of Diversity and Inclusion, at cwalker2@cocc.edu or 541-383-7412.

Free pet wellness clinic

A free Pet Wellness Clinic is coming up this Sunday, October 10 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Warm Springs Community Center parking area.

The non-profit groups Street Dog Hero and Fences for Fido are partnering to bring this clinic to families and pets of the reservation.

The spay-neuter service aspect of the clinic is already full, as there has been a great response from the community, said Stef McCargar of Fences for Fido.

Fences for Fido has provided free services to hundreds of families on the Warm Springs Reservation by building fences, providing dog houses, distributing dog food, and providing spay and neuter services.

The October 10 event will be Street Dog Hero's first visit to the Warm Springs community.

Services will be the free spay and neuter (as mentioned, already booked); a clinic offering free vaccines; flea, tick and mange management; and a food bank with dog and cat food.

Street Dog Hero and Fences for Fido extend gratitude to the people of Warm Springs for the trust placed in their organizations, and the opportunity to be of service.

Street Dog Hero serves pets around the world. Their mission is to help street dogs globally by providing transportation, medical treatment, adoption placement, awareness and education.

Fences for Fido has a mission to improve the quality of life for dogs who spend most or all hours confined to a chain.

Eagles Football

The Warm Springs Academy Eagles had a great win in late September, overcoming a 14-0 second-quarter deficit to beat the Culver Bulldogs, 22-20. The game was at the Academy (Jayson Smith photos above and below).

The Eagles play next Wednesday, October 12 at home against Sisters. They have a scrimmage with the Jefferson County Middle School, scheduled at Madras High School under the lights, to close out the season, October 26. Spectators are reminded that face masks and social distancing are required at all 509-J schools and sports competitions.

For Equine Event, Conference

It’ ukdi kadux,
I would like to take this time to express my gratitude to the Warm Springs Prevention Program for facilitating the Grief Conference and the Youth Prevention Conference during the summer. I truly appreciated the group breakout sessions.
One of the breakout sessions consisted of the White Clay Holistic Wellness Program. The White Clay Holistic Wellness Program is currently operated by non-profit and volunteers. The program has been in existence since 2011.

I truly appreciated the turn out and the team. A big Thank You goes out the Natural Resource Range and Agriculture—with special mention to Austin Smith Jr., Ricky Graybael, Sue Miller, Johnny E. Smith and Leander Smith Sr.—for setting up and taking care of the livestock corral panels, enabling the Equine event to happen. This would not have happened without your support and teamwork.

A big Thank You to the Equine facilitators Koda, Maylene and Matthew Smith, Louis and Leander Smith Jr., Laura Thomas Poitra, Leander Smith Sr., Johnny Smith, Alvis Smith IV, Jeremiah Sconawah and Dr. Spence J.

Your awesome and much appreciated teamwork kept up the stamina, and the positive energy flowing. Also, Thank You Mr. and Mrs. Charles Littleleaf for your generosity.

Your hard work is truly appreciated. If I left anyone out, it is not intentional. “Health and Wellness makes a Healthy Village!”

God Bless You,
Mona Cochran, M.Ed/

Projected slowdown in state covid cases

The state Health Authority released its latest Covid-19 forecast, showing a continued decline in daily cases and hospitalizations projected through mid October. At the estimated level of transmission, now slower than in September, the report estimates 320 cases per 100,000 people, or an average of 955 daily cases and 56 hospitalizations for the period between this Thursday, October 7 through October 19.

Under that scenario, the pace of newly diagnosed cases and hospitalizations would be considerably lower than in September.

Covid spike from Round-Up slows progress

Oregon is experiencing a downward trend in Covid-19 hospitalizations and cases after a bad late-summer surge. However, Gov. Kate Brown said last week she was “gravely concerned” about an outbreak in the northeastern part of the state following the Pendleton Round-Up rodeo.

So far, there have been at least 49 newly confirmed cases of Covid-19 tied to the annual rodeo, which attracted thousands of people to that corner of Oregon in mid September.

Most of the cases were reported in Umatilla County, where the round-up takes place, and in nearby Wallowa County.

Joe Fiumara, Umatilla County’s public health director, said some people who attended the rodeo were sick but chose to go anyway.
