Tribes to mark Treaty of 1855 anniversary

Parade, Health Fair, community gathering to mark the occasion

June 25 will mark the one-hundred and sixty-seventh anniversary of the signing of the Treaty of 1855 between the Tribes of Middle Oregon and the federal government.

The full three-day Treaty Days Powwow and Rodeo are again not possible this year, as happened in 2020 and 2021. This is due to covid: The necessary and extensive fund-raising for Pi-Ume-Sha was not possible because of the virus. And there is the lingering health risk of the virus itself, as Pi-Ume-Sha in the past traditionally draws several hundred or more visitors to Warm Springs. So the Pi-Ume-Sha Committee chose to have the Traditional Parade this year on Saturday, June 25, which also happens to be the anniversary date of the Treaty.

After the parade the community is invited to the powwow grounds for a community gathering. On June 22, the Wednesday before the anniversary weekend, Warm Springs Community Health, IHS and partners will host the Pi-Ume-Sha Health Fair, held at the Agency Longhouse.

Pi-Ume-Sha began in 1969. The present day committee would like to acknowledge the original team that first planned and hosted the powwow. The original members have all now passed. They include Arthur Mitchell, who was Chairman, and Bernice Mitchell. Sammy Colwash also served as Chair. Grant and Emily Waheneka were members of the original powwow committee, along with the following:

Longhouse.

Linton and Eva Winishut. Andrew and Edna David. Joe and Ruth Estabrook. Clarence and Florence Meanus.

Nathan '8-Ball' Jim, the Master of Ceremonies. Chief Amos Simtustus Sr. Prosanna Williams, grounds and vendors coordinator.

J. Silas Williams, contest coordinator. Verbena Greene and Perry Greene, Parade organizers. Jimmy Macy and Carla Macy. Ella Jane Jim, Elder. Adeline Miller. Larry Calica. Millie Colwash, Elder. Ada Sooksoit. Elizabeth Rhoan. Geraldine Jim. Wilford Jim. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Stanley. Clark '9-Ball' Livingston. Wally Chamnu. Donna Olsen. The Committee wishes the community the best and safest Treaty anniversary weekend, hoping to see the full powwow return in June 2023.

$27 million for water, landfill projects

The Confederated Tribes received some good news earlier this month, as the Indian Health Service announced $25 million in infrastructure money for the tribes this year. The funding is part of the $1.2 trillion bi-partisan Infrastructure Law of 2021.

Overall, $700 million of the Infrastructure money went to recognized tribes for water projects. This number is part of a five-year, $3.5 billion allocation for IHS projects.

This year's funding to the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs will also go toward much-needed work on the Warm Springs Landfill.

Funding is expected to arrive within 60 days, according to IHS public affairs.

For the Confederated Tribes the 2022 funds will be divided between eight projects. A breakdown is as follows:

Dry Creek water treatment plant: $13.6 million.

Sewer collection system renewal phase I: $1.43 million.

The Simnasho lagoon rehabilitation project: $513,810.

Agency area water distribution rehabilitation phase I: $2,654,000.

Municipal landfill project: $5,942,500.

Residential water meters installation: $1,212,750.

Water storage tank rehabilitation: $119,625.

Schoolie Flat water system rehabilitation: $352,000.

one of the first projects to move forward, with construction expected to begin in September.

Focus on water infrastructure on the reservation picked up in 2019, and again in the summer of 2020, as the Agency area experienced prolonged boil-water conditions.

Oregon's U.S. Senators Ron Wyden and Jeff Merkley made addressing the situation a priority. Mr. Holliday said their work is greatly appreciated, and makes for a good start to a long term resolution.

3 years as Sisters Rodeo Queen

Mary Olney of Warm Springs just finished her time as the Sisters Rodeo Queen. Mary was the Sisters Rodeo Queen from 2020 through this past weekend, a three-year rodeo royalty term.

Mary auditioned with her horse Dixie at the 2019 Sisters Rodeo, just after she had graduated high school. The rodeo was cancelled because of covid in 2020 and 2021 while Mary continued serving as Rodeo Queen.

The 2022 rodeo was last weekend, when the next queen was chosen. So Mary had a run of three years. "Most ladies are blessed to have one year as a Sisters Rodeo Queen," Mary says. "I've been blessed to have three."

Mary is the daughter of Sonia Heath and Shane Olney. She is also the granddaughter of Warm Springs Chief Delvis Heath Sr.

Courtesy Sisters Rodeo

Mary grew up on the reservation, where she learned the Native culture. This is also where she developed a love for horses and the sport of rodeo.

Mary comes from generations of rodeo family. Her grandmother use to ride bareback, her mother ran barrels, her brothers ride bulls and broncs, and many other family members who have participated in Wild horse racing.

Mary started participating in junior rodeos, play days, and horse clinics at an early age. Growing up she was instilled with a passion for animals, rodeo, and in all the western way of life.

Mary believes that growing up around rodeo teaches some very valuable lessons; which is to lend a hand when needed, to stay humble and determined. "And to get back on if you get bucked off!" she says.

The Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs are hosting the camp this year.

be selected entering grades six through eight.

Salmon camp is free; however, space is limited and the participants are selected through an application process.

Applications must be received by this Friday, June 17. All meals and lodging are included and a stipend will be provided upon successful completion of the program. See the site: critfc.org/for-kids-home/salmon-camp/

Estate plans free to members

On the Warm Springs Reservation - June 23 to July 5, 2022

Attorney Roberta Armstrong, of the Stewards of Indigenous Resources Endowment, will be in Warm Springs for the next few weeks, helping tribal members with estate planning.

The service is free to tribal members, and is of increasing importance, because of recent federal legislation, the American Indian Probate Reform Act.

The goal of SIRE, Armstrong says, "is to keep tribal land in tribal members' hands."

"Because of a change in federal law governing the disposition of property following a tribal member's passing, having a will has taken on greater importance," said Armstrong.

The law, AIPRA, dictates how property will be distributed following the passing of a tribal member who does not have a will.

"The way to avoid the situation, and control the distribution of the estate, is to have a will," said Armstrong.

Armstrong has her office at the Land Services Office. She and her Scribes will be in Warm Springs until July 5th.

To contact Armstrong, call 866-639-5550 or email Roberta@IndianWillsOnWheels.org.

Individuals who schedule appointments with Armstrong will complete an authorization form for her to obtain the following information prior to the scheduled appointment.

1. A report of Individual Trust Interests that lists all trust land ownership interests for that individual;
2. A current Individual Indian Monies account statement.

Around Indian Country

Featured on new U.S. quarter

Fewer than 100 people in American history have been depicted on U.S. coins and currency, and Kermit Mankiller knew one of them personally. Not only knew one, but is related to her. Kermit was born in Clarkston and previously served as chief executive of the Nez Perce Tribal Enterprises.

Last week was a good one for him and his extended family. That’s when the U.S. Mint released the first Wilma Mankiller quarters during a special ceremony in Oklahoma.

Wilma is just the sixth American woman to appear on a U.S. coin. She was the first woman to be elected primary chief of the Cherokee Nation — the second-largest Native American tribe in the country. She served 10 years in that position, from 1985-95.

Reservation has so far avoided heatwave

Large areas of the west in recent days have experienced a ‘dangerous and deadly heat wave.’

Along with Arizona, the states of California, Nevada and Texas were especially hot during the wave.

Meanwhile, the Warm Springs Reservation and the region have so far avoided the heat.

Average temperatures here have been in the 70s, combined with an unusual though very welcome June rainfall.

For internet

Dear Warm Springs business owners and community members, We increasingly need reliable, high-speed internet (broadband) in Jefferson County, including the reservation. The last 24 months highlighted that need. The county is out in the forefront of addressing this problem by funding a County-wide Broadband Plan. We’d like to finalize this plan in the next three months to move closer to improving our local broadband infrastructure. As you can imagine, better broadband will improve our quality of life, economic development, health care, education, and nearly every other aspect of our County! We’ve had great participation so far, and want to hear from all businesses in the County about current internet speeds, how you are using the broadband, and why it’s so important to your future. So may I have 10-20 minutes of your time to take the Jefferson County Broadband Business eCheckup? I know that’s a lot of time but this is an important issue and your input is really valuable figure out how to improve broadband services throughout Jefferson County. See the website: jeffco.net/jc-eCheckup Many thanks in advance, Jeff Rasmussen, County Administrator.

Dr. Creeleman named Family Doctor of the Year

Dr. Thomas Creeleman recently received the honor of Family Doctor of the Year. The recognition comes from the Oregon Academy of Family Physicians. People of Warm Springs know Dr. Creeleman for his years of service as doctor, medical director and friend at the Warm Springs Clinic. The Family Physician’s award celebrates his commitment to community, service to his patients, and impact on future generations within family medicine.

Dr. Creeleman graduated from the University of Washington School of Medicine in 1974. He completed his internship at Santa Clara Medical Center in San Jose, California. After he became board certified in 1979, he began practicing with the Warm Springs Indian Health Service, and he has served the Confederated Tribes for over 40 years. More than 20 of those years were spent as the medical director of the Warm Springs Fire and Safety program. During that time he had a major impact on shaping the education and professionalism of the paramedics, emergency medical technicians, and first responders. Dr. Creeleman provided expert guidance and perspective on the needs of rural clinical and emergency medical providers during the birth of the Cascade East Area Health Education Center. He was an active member and served as chief of staff in the Mountain View Hospital District. Colleagues and patients shared Dr. Creeleman’s steadfast efforts to understand the tribes’ culture, and to create a practice in which his patients feel like family. Patients shared stories in which Dr. Creeleman provided aid and comfort to them and their family members during challenging times. Many expressed awe in Dr. Creeleman’s abilities to take patients’ emotions into consideration during every encounter and to explain medicine and treatment in friendly and approachable ways to youth and elders alike. He leaves a lasting impact on Warm Springs IHS and family medicine. One colleague said, “Through the teaching efforts and direction of Dr. Creeleman, Warm Springs IHS became a most sought after rural medicine, primary care rotation for medical students and physician assistant students, and nurse practitioner students primarily from OHSU, University of Washington as well as other institutions.” Others share Dr. Creeleman’s constant curiosity and desire to learn about medicine, the families he serves, and his community. His values of lifelong learning, compassion, and putting patients first have been imparted on those who he has taught over the course of his career. Dr. Creeleman recently entered retirement, though he continues to serve as an excellent role model for family physicians. And those he has taught continue to carry his legacy into their pursuit of health and wellness for Oregon. The Oregon Academy of Family Physicians is the largest medical specialty society in Oregon and represents more than 1,700 family physicians, residents and medical students throughout the state. The mission of the academy is to support family physicians in their pursuit of optimal health for the people of Oregon.

Grandparents on the mother’s side are Lorena Vazquez and Domingo Olvera of Madras.

Sophia Grace Alexander
Heath Alexander and Mariah Stacona of Madras are pleased to announce the birth of their daughter Sophia Grace Alexander, born on June 7, 2022. Sophia joins brothers Reece, 21, and Nolan, 17; and sister Amirah, 14 months. Grandparents on the father’s side are Don and Linda Alexander of Prospect. Grandparents on the mother’s side are Andrew Stacona of Warm Springs, and Blanca Plazola of Madras.

Indian language program receives boost for visioning

The Northwest Indian Language Institute received a grant from The Roundhouse Foundation. This will support innovative programs in Oregon’s rural communities, to launch an initiative to analyze and re-envision the needs that the Indian Language Institute will address as the organization moves into the future.

Now in its twenty-fifth year, the institute will be exploring how language preservation needs have shifted among tribal nations and language revitalization practitioners since the organization was founded.

During the analysis, which will launch this summer and be conducted over approximately 15 months, the language institute leadership will initiate conversations with language leaders from the nine federally recognized tribes of Oregon, tribal partners throughout the Pacific Northwest including the Confederated Tribes, other partners and founding members.

Members of the Northwest Indian Language Institute.

“After 25 years, the landscape of Indigenous language has shifted into a new phase, and our in-depth analysis will help us strengthen relationships as well as evaluate the essential needs that Native communities now have when it comes to preserving this important part of their culture and history,” said Robert Elliott of the institute.

“We expect that we will find an increased openness to the use of technology to support language learning, and a renewed emphasis on the overall benefits of youth involvement in Native language programs. Support from The Roundhouse Foundation has made it possible for us to collaborate even more deeply with these communities and create an action plan for language revitalization for the next 25 years.”

The new grant will enable the institute to complete the needs analysis in an ideal fashion, to support and evaluate the work thoroughly and to visit tribal partners throughout Oregon in person and further build relationships in a culturally appropriate manner.

In addition to in-person information gathering, the language institute will use online tools to collect input from past program participants and colleagues outside the Pacific Northwest. The analysis will culminate in winter 2023 with a final report that will serve as a roadmap for the next phase of the Institute.

The Northwest Indian Language Institute will also hold its annual Summer Institute online once again this year due to lingering pandemic-related concerns and to protect invaluable elders and knowledge bearers.

With three course offerings for Indigenous language teachers and learners from which to choose, Summer Institute runs June 21-July 1.

Additionally there are two post-Summer Institute courses running July 11-August 26.

Covid update

Covid-19 precautions continue to be recommended among the reservation community, especially if you will be in a large group of people. You are encouraged to continue to sanitize and wash your hands on a regular basis.

With the start of summer celebrations and activities, it is especially important to be cautious. You can pick up home covid test kits at Emergency Management, or on weekends at the Fire Department.

Every home in the U.S. is eligible to order a third round of free at-home covid test kits. You can order online at covid.gov/tests

For a vaccination appointment call 541-553-2610.

Appointments are available Monday through Friday at the Warm Springs Community Health Clinic.

The virus is still present among the tribal community, as the covid Reponse Team has reported to Tribal Council.

Late last week, for instance, there were nine confirmed cases of Covid-19 among the community. Five of these, however, were from off-reservation individuals.

Wastewater testing continues to show the presence of Covid-19.

The Treaty of 1855 ~ One-Hundred Sixty-Seven Year Anniversary, June 25

This is the time of year—late June—when the Confederated Tribes remember the signing of the Treaty of 1855, the founding document of the modern day tribes.

With Pi-Ume-Sha again on hold this year, We commemorate the Treaty by reproducing the text of the document—from its description of the then newly-formed reservation, to the recognition of off-reservation rights, to the signatories of the Treaty of 1855:

Treaty of Wasco, Columbia River, Oregon Territory with the Taih, Wyam, Tenino, & DockSpus Bands of the Walla-Walla, and the Dalles, Ki-Gal-Twal-La, and the Dog River Bands of the Wasco June 25, 1855 ~ 12 Stat., 963.

- Ratified Mar. 8, 1859. - Proclaimed Apr. 18, 1859.

Articles of agreement and convention made and concluded at Wasco, near the Dalles of the Columbia River, in Oregon Territory, by Joel Palmer, superintendent of Indian affairs, on the part of the United States, and the followingnamed chiefs and headmen of the confederated tribes and bands of Indians, residing in Middle Oregon, they being duly authorized thereto by their respective bands, to wit:

Sym-tustus, Locks-quis-sa, Shick-a-me, and Kuck-up, chiefs of the Taih or Upper De Chutes band of Walla-Wallas; Stocketly and Iso, chiefs of the Wyam or Lower De Chutes band of WallaWallas; Alexis and Talkish, chiefs of the Tenino band of WallaWallas; Yise, chief of the DockSpus or John Day’s River band of Walla-Wallas; Mark, William Chenook, and Cush-Kella, chiefs of the Dalles band of the Wascoes; Toh-simph, chief of the Ki-gal-twal-la band of Wascoes; and Wal-la-chin, chief of the Dog River band of Wascoes.

Article 1. The above-named confederated bands of Indians cede to the United States all their right, title, and claim to all and every part of the country claimed by them, included in the following boundaries, to wit:

Commencing in the middle of the Columbia River, at the Cascade

Falls, and running thence southerly to the summit of the Cascade Mountains; thence along said summit to the forty-fourth parallel of north latitude; thence east on that parallel to the summit of the Blue Mountains, or the western boundary of the Sho-shone or Snake country; thence northerly along that summit to a point due east from the head-waters of Willow Creek; thence west to the head-waters of said creek; thence down said stream to its junction with the Columbia River; and thence down the channel of the Columbia River to the place of beginning.

Provided, however, that so much of the country described above as is contained in the following boundaries, shall, until otherwise directed by the President of the United States, be set apart as a residence for said Indians, which tract for the purposes contemplated shall be held and regarded as an Indian reservation, to wit:

Commencing in the middle of the channel of the De Chutes River opposite the eastern termination of a range of high lands usually known as the Mutton Mountains; thence westerly to the summit of said range, along the divide to its connection with the Cascade Mountains; thence to the summit of said mountains; thence southerly to Mount Jefferson; thence down the main branch of De Chutes River; heading in this peak, to its junction with De Chutes River; and thence down the middle of the channel of said river to the place of beginning.

All of which tract shall be set apart, and, so far as necessary, surveyed and marked out for their exclusive use; nor shall any white person be permitted to reside upon the same without the concurrent permission of the agent and superintendent.

The said bands and tribes agree to remove to and settle upon the same within one year after the ratification of this treaty, without any additional expense to the United States other than is provided for by this treaty; and, until the expiration of the time specified, the said bands shall be permitted to occupy and reside upon the tracts now possessed by them, guaranteeing to all white citizens the right to enter upon and occupy as settlers any lands not included in said reservation, and not actually enclosed by said Indians.

Provided, however, That prior to the removal of said Indians to said reservation, and before any improvements contemplated by this treaty shall have been commenced, that if the three principal bands, to wit: the Wascopum, Tiah, or Upper De Chutes, and the Lower De Chutes bands of WallaWallas shall express in council, a desire that some other reservation may be selected for them, that the three bands named may select each three persons of their respective bands, who with the superintendent of Indian affairs or agent, as may by him be directed, shall proceed to examine, and if another location can be selected, better suited to the condition and wants of said Indians, that is unoccupied by the whites, and upon which the board of commissioners thus selected may agree, the same shall be declared a reservation for said Indians, instead of the tract named in this treaty.

Provided, also, That the exclusive right of taking fish in the streams running through and bordering said reservation is hereby secured to said Indians; and at all other usual and accustomed stations, in common with citizens of the United States, and of erecting suitable houses for curing the same; also the privilege of hunting, gathering roots and berries, and pasturing their stock on unclaimed lands, in common with citizens, is secured to them.

And provided, also, That if any band or bands of Indians, residing in and claiming any portion or portions of the country in this article, shall not accede to the terms of this treaty, then the bands becoming parties hereunto agree to receive such part of the several and other payments herein named as a consideration for the entire country described as aforesaid as shall be in the proportion that their aggregate number may have to the whole number of Indians residing in and claiming the entire country aforesaid, as consideration and payment in full for the tracts in said country claimed by them.

And provided, also, That where substantial improvements have been made by any members of the bands being parties to this treaty, who are compelled to abandon them in consequence of said treaty, the same shall be valued, under the direction of the President of the United States, and payment made therefor; or, in lieu of said payment, improvements of equal extent and value at their option shall be made for them on the tracts assigned to each respectively.

Article 2. In consideration of, and payment for, the country hereby ceded, the United States agree to pay the bands and tribes of Indians claiming territory and residing in said country, the several sums of money following, to wit:

Eight thousand dollars per annum for the first five years, commencing on the first day of September, 1856, or as soon thereafter as practicable. Six thousand dollars per annum for the term of five years next succeeding the first five. Four thousand dollars per annum for the term of five years next succeeding the second five; and Two thousand dollars per annum for the term of five years next succeeding the third five.

All of which several sums of money shall be expended for the use and benefit of the confederated bands, under the direction of the President of the United States, who may from time to time, at his discretion determine what proportion thereof shall be expended for such objects as in his judgment will promote their well-being and advance them in civilization; for their moral improvement and education; for building, opening and fencing farms, breaking land, providing teams, stock, agricultural implements, seeds, &c.; for clothing, provisions, and tools; for medical purposes, providing mechanics and farmers, and for arms and ammunition.

Article 3. The United States agree to pay said Indians the additional sum of fifty thousand dollars, a portion whereof shall be applied to the payment for such articles as may be advanced them at the time of signing this treaty, and in providing, after the ratification thereof and prior to their removal, such articles as may be deemed by the President essential to their want; for the erection of buildings on the reservation, fencing and opening farms; for the purchase of teams, farming implements, clothing and provisions, tools, seeds, and for the payment of employees; and for subsisting the Indians the first year after their removal.

Article 4. In addition to the considerations specified the United States agree to erect, at suitable points on the reservation, one saw-mill and one flouring-mill; suitable hospital buildings; one schoolhouse; one blacksmith-shop with a tin and a gunsmith-shop thereto attached; one wagon and plough maker shop; and for one sawyer, one miller, one superintendent of farming operations, a farmer, a physician, a schoolteacher, a blacksmith, and a wagon and plough maker, a dwelling house and the requisite outbuildings for each; and to purchase and keep in repair for the time specified for furnishing employees all necessary mill-fixtures, mechanics’ tools, medicines and hospital stores, books and stationery for schools, and furniture for employees.

TREATY will conclude June 29 Spilyay

The program's goal is to instill a love of reading in our students.

5th Grade Track Meet [Left] - 509J 5th graders have been taking part in an end of year event like this for nearly three decades! Brown has worked for the school district for nearly 18 years. She's worked at a number of schools, but started her time at Madras High and is now back after getting the promotion to Head Cook.

"I really love working with kids. Kids are awesome. I have nine grandkids so it's nice to come back and see the kids, work with the kids being able to see them first thing in the morning. I like to say good morning and see how they're doing for the day."

MHS [Right] - More than 120 graduates arrived early at MHS Stadium with the full support of family, friends, and the community to celebrate them on June 4th. The day marked the end of their K-12 journey as they prepare to take the next steps in their lives. Congrats to the class of 2022!

Greater convenience at Housing

D.McMechan/Spilyay

The Warm Springs Housing Authority recently completed a renovation and addition project, adding much-needed new office space. In addition, Housing now has a drive thru window.

The new wing at Housing turned out great: Before, some of the employees had to use spaces such as the conference room for an office. Project manager for the Housing building improvement was Eli Smith.

The entrance is now at the southern part of the building. If you need to make a payment, or pick up forms, you can use the new drive thru. For questions call Housing at 541-553-3250; drive up to the window, or stop by the office.
