

2023 Lincoln's Birthday Powwow Royalty Candidates

Shmalane ~ ChaCha ~ Jaihline Ramirez

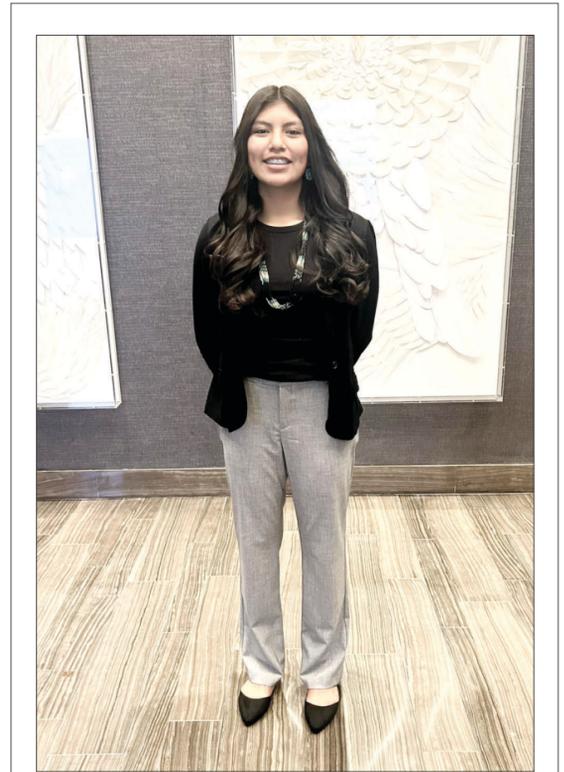

Hello,
My given name is Shmalane, most know me as ChaCha, and Jaihline Ramirez is my birth name.
I am running for this year's Lincoln's Birthday Powwow royalty coming up in Simnasho. The powwow will be Friday through Sunday, February 10-12.
Please support the powwow and myself by buying raffle tickets and spreading the word.
Raffle tickets are $1 each or six tickets for $5, and we will accept cash or cash app.

We are selling tickets from now until the drawing on the February 12.
I am a freshman at Mt. Hood Community College, majoring in psychology. I am also a social justice advocate, and activity planner for the school.
We are hoping to bring back the Mt. Hood Community College Powwow this year. I also play for the women's basketball team.

My future plans include becoming a Drug and Addictions Counselor, and an advocate for the youth in my community.
My hobbies include beading, sports and studying basketball.

I come from the Mckinley and Jessie Arthur family, who once had a homestead located at the island of the north end of the reservation. Thank you for your support.

Kiahna Allen ~

Kiahna Allen is a member of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, and also shares the heritage of the San Carlos Apache. Kiahna is a sophomore athlete at Madras High School, and is an involved community member and active advocate.
She is working for the opportunity to represent the community as the Lincoln's Powwow Queen. She is around the community as much as possible, and would appreciate the opportunity to gain your support for the powwow. Raffle tickets are $1 each or six for $5.
Kiahna and family can accept Facebook pay. CashApp: $Lorienscott. Or by Venmo: @lorienscott
Thank you for the support, and sharing in her goal of representing our community.

Jaliyah George ~

Hello family and friends!
My name is Jaliyah George, and I am 18 years old. I am currently enrolled for my senior year at Madras High School. I am on track to graduate early this coming February.
I grew up wanting to get to know our traditional ways. Since a young age I've attended everything I could at the longhouse with my grandmother Winona George.
I am currently working part-time as a barista at Midtown Coffee in Madras, and enjoy working my way up and creating relationships with the customers as well as my coworkers.
My plans after high school are to go to school to become a hair stylist, as well as eventually own my own thriving salon!

I'd like to thank everyone for the opportunity with this year's Lincoln's Powwow, as I've enjoyed my reign previously as the 2020 Little Miss Warm Springs. The connections and friendships I've made along the way truly are wonderful, and I hope to continue the experience this summer representing the 2023 Lincoln's Powwow!
I would greatly appreciate anyone purchasing raffle tickets, or even spreading the word. Raffle tickets are going for one for a $1 or six for $5. I will be selling tickets from now until the drawing on February 12. Thank you to everyone for your support!

Fences for Fido will have another distemper and parvo vaccine clinic for dogs on Saturday, February 11. Hours will be from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Agency Fire Station. Shots and boosters will be available.
Young puppies need a series of three vaccines to be protected, and adult dogs need an annual booster. This is open to Warm Springs residents. Registration is open online at the website: fencesforfido.org
To be prepared on the day of your appointment, please be sure to have any vet records or date of last vaccine, and dogs should remain in your car and on a leash.
