Indian Head Casino and the Plaza Travel Plaza are hosting a Job Fair on Tuesday, May 9 at their Human Resources office, located at the Plaza Shops by the casino. The fair will be from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Job Fair will feature on-site interviews, and department managers will be on hand to answer any questions you may have. The available jobs include benefits like health insurance, dental, vision and prescription, life insurance, 401(k), flexible spending plans, personal time off, and flexible hours. Jobs include positions in all areas of the operation, slots, food and beverage, and more. Interviews will be on hand to answer any questions you may have. For the day, there will be a chance to earn some extra cash while cleaning out your closets, according to the Warm Springs Community Action Team.

At the Roof Feast Rodeo

The Twenty-Fourth Annual Senior Day of the Confederated Tribes is coming up on Friday, May 12 at the Agency Longhouse. The day will be another memorable one, as the most recent Warm Springs Senior Day was in 2019, and much has changed since then. As an example, the popular and great gentleman who performed the Elvis Presley impersonation will, regretfully, not be on hand to sing, dance and joke, as he has passed away since the last Senior Day. “That was the two-thousand-ninth time that Elvis has died,” commented Tribal Councilman Wilson Wewa Jr., director of the Senior Program. The comment is in all due respect, and perhaps a farewell of the good-natured humor we can again expect from the Warm Springs Senior Day. The day will feature the line-up of entertainment and games, traditional and other music, plus the information booths and vendors in the community hall selling Native jewelry, bead- and artwork. And the salmon bake and feast are always a most welcome feature.

Community update

Warm Springs health officials remind the community that Covid-19 remains a threat in the community, and safety measures like hand-washing and staying at home when you feel ill are important, if you choose, still recommended. There were a total of 30 confirmed covid cases in the tribal community during the month of April, including on campus hospitalization, as an example of the lingering presence of the virus. The April number was a fairly large increase from earlier in the year, such as in mid-January when at an all time low, following French toast, sandwiches, not dessert burgers and NDN tacos for lunch.

Call to reserve a vendor table at 541-553-3243. For the day, bring your own table. The sale will be a chance to earn some extra cash while cleaning out your cloths for spring.

New training, career service using VR

The Warm Springs Community Action Team now offers an innovative training and career exploration service featuring virtual reality technology. The Community Action Team is now accepting appointments to use the service. The virtual reality, or VR, training facility can be accessed by one of two locations: One VR facility is located at the Paiute Port Espresso and gift shop at the Plaza by Indian Head Casino. Another training facility is at the Community Action Team office on campus at 1136 Paiute Avenue. Or you can call 541-553-3148. The VR facilities are part of the Adult and Career Exploration Service.

Great spring weather greeted the Roof Feast Rodeo over the weekend, hosted by the Ranch Rodeo Association at the Warm Springs Rodeo Grounds. During the competition, there was a split for first place in the Wild Horse Race. Winners in order were the Delvin Heath Team and the Clarence Means Team, and the Ellery Leclaire Team took third. In Breakaway Roping, first place went to Sheyanne Pedersen, and second place to Salie Baumert. Randy Snapp won the Ranch Bronc Riding competition. Max Bull was a triple with first and second-place going to Joel Eaton and Ada Lopez. In the Barrel Racing, first place went to Sabrina Frolov, second to Natalia Frolov, and third to Kylei Escobar. In Team Roping the winners were Sheyanne Pedersen (header) and Dale Pedersen (heeler). For more information, visit the website: circuitoflife.com. The company is partnering with the Community Action Team to provide the VR training and career service to the tribal membership and community. Ms. Dowdy has met with tribal departments, giving a short introduction about the new program, and continues the outreach. You can call Sara at 541-553-3148, or her email is: sara@wscat.org (You can also see the transfer WS-CAT flyer on page 2 of this publication.)

On the Council agenda

The following are some of the items coming up at the Tribal Council agenda for the rest of May (subject to change at Council discretion):

Wednesday, May 3
9 a.m.: Early Childhood Education update with Robert Brunoe, Secretary-Treasurer.
11: Public Safety branch update with Valerie Switzler, Education branch.

Monday, May 8
9 a.m.: Natural Resources updates with Aurena Smith Jr.
10: Education branch update with Valerie Switzler.
11: Public Safety branch update.

Monday, May 15
9 a.m.: Secretary-Treasurer update with Robben Bruce, Secretary-Treasurer.

9 a.m.: Tentative: Visit an Eye for the Rez: Edward Heath photography is now on exhibit at the Museum at Warm Springs’ Changung Exhibits Gallery. The show includes 38 photographs by Edward Heath, Warm Springs’ photographer. Mr. Heath grew up in the Simnasho area, and in recent years has become known for his portraits, nature and wildlife photography, often featuring areas where he grew up, as well as different locations on the Warm Springs Reservation.

The photographs of An Eye for the Rez are for sale, though some have already been purchased. The opening reception of the show, in late April, several photos already bore the small red sticker indicating they had been purchased. Mr. Heath says photography is something he does for fun and as a hobby. “It still amazes me that people are interested in buying stuff that I do,” he says. What the photos capture often reveal a unique perspective. The photographer says he makes sure he takes at least an “interpretation of what we all see every day.”

An Eye for the Rez will be on view at the museum through May 27. The show is part of the museum’s Thirtieth Anniversary lineup of exhibitions, public programs and special events.

Always good to rely the wisdom of our ancestors
Note: This is the fourth and final article, by Dr. Shilo Tappert and posted by KWSO, regarding Suicide Prevention.

When faced with life problems, it can be overwhelming and daunting when you don’t know what to do. It is always good to consult with an elder or someone who has been through the same thing.

When that is not available to you, meditating to the wise and daunting when you don’t.

Fences for Fido and First Nations Vet are partnering for the Warm Springs National Fish Hatchery.

This four-weekend event will provide free spay and neuter clinics for dogs and cats on the reservation. Each pet will receive a spay or neuter, vaccines, microchip and flea and tick medicine.

To be eligible, pets must be between 2 months and 5 years old, weigh less than 100 pounds and live within the reservation boundaries.

The new soccer facilities will include field lights, expanded concrete pathways, upgraded gates for security, and a new, 2,000-square-foot field house with concession space, restrooms, athlete locker rooms, and a shared coaches office. The estimated completion date for the project is Fall 2023.

COCC Salmon Bake supports Native American scholarships

Central Oregon Community College's annual Salmon Bake is an event that highlights the college's Native American program and the First Nations Student Union Club. This year the Salmon Bake is scheduled from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, May 13 at the Bend campus's Athletic Field.

This is a free community event with entertainment for the whole family, featuring food, music, dance, vendors and a silent auction. All donations and auction proceeds go to support the COCC First Nations Student Union program.

Traditionally roasted salmon—skeewered on sticks, stinging an open fire—will be served beginning at noon, with fish provided and prepared by Merge Catering of Warm Springs. Frybread will be supplied by Tamarie Coffee of Warm Springs, among other food items served.

The day's entertainment will feature speakers Jamey Edwards-Greenly, a Native American Music Awards winner whose work has featured on a Grammy-nominated album, Quarry Creek's percussion-drumming and dancing, a powwow to feature the Arlee Aqua from Mecca Tsi:lash.

Proceeds from the silent auction of arts and crafts will support the First Nations Student Union program.

For the 2022-23 academic year, 40 percent of the college's students identified as American Indian or Alaska Native. For more information about the COCC Native American program, contact Jermaine Recoro, Native American program coordinator at 541-318-3782. Or email: jcorero@cocc.edu

~ Ichishkiin lessons for the classroom ~

UNIT: CLOTHING
LEVEL: Beginning
LESSON: Pick Up and Put Away Clothing
GOAL:
To pick up and put clothing away, and to learn the names for different kinds of places where clothing goes. To speak Ichishkiin by taking turns to give the commands.

OBJECTIVES:
1. The student will be able to:
   1. Follow directions to hang up and put away clothing, for partial control.
   2. Follow directions to pick up different articles of clothing, for partial control.
   3.Say the commands to the other students, for partial control.
   4. Follow directions to put clothes in different kinds of containers and places where clothes go, for partial control.

PROCEDURES:
1. Introduction: Tell the students this lesson is on how to put away clothing.

Chilohtukuk na kikshikawpa winicht täätpas. Today we will learn how to put away clothing in different ways.

2. Implementation:
   Give TFR commands and have the students follow the commands as you show the TFR movement.

   Commands to MANY people:
   - Kwaswëtik tikíl: Pick up the socks.
   - Wapiq takumak: Pick up the hat.
   - Shapapìq/Qhtapìq kušpik Shapapìq/Qhtapìq: Hang your coat up like this on the hanger.

Families, teachers, school officials and guests met last week the Family Summit. For the evening there were 20 information and activity booths on hand.

I’m excited to see all of you and all the resources that we have here, and I’m hoping to see you at our powwow on May 13,” said Lonnie Henderson, Warm Springs Academy Principal.

School district board member Laurie Danzuka discussed some projects she is working on. Ms. Danzuka is also the Native American Success Coordinator for the High Desert Education Service District.

“My main role is to help share our tribal history, as is laid out in Senate Bill 13 for the nine tribes of Oregon,” Ms. Danzuka said. She also gives cultural presentations in classrooms for grades K-12.

Rosa Sendias from the Family Resource Center of Central Oregon also welcomed the families and guests. She discussed her organization: “We provide parenting education and support throughout the region. We offer a wide range of different parent education and support settings.”

Representatives from Mosaic Community Health, the Central Oregon Health Council, and PacificSource health insurance, and Thrive of Central Oregon were also on hand. Another participant was the health hearing group Dangerous Decibels, who remind us what we can do to protect our hearing. And Warm Springs Community Health had a photo booth. Folks then enjoyed a meal that was provided.
